"HERE'S HOW I MAKE THE OYSTER STEW*

Mrs. William D. Herridge

LIKES SO WELL"

... says Florence M. Vincent, cook at the Canadian Legation, Washington, D.C., residence of the Hon. William D. Herridge, K.C., D.S.O., M.C., Canadian Minister to the United States, and Mrs. Herridge

HAVE received many compliments on my oyster stew," cook Vincent continues, "I am sure the Nestlé's Evaporated Milk I use is one of the reasons for its success. I find, too, that Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is ideal in recipes for other things such as soups, omelettes, creamed dishes and so forth."

In mansion and in modest home, the discerning housewife uses Nestlé's because she knows that its purity and goodness never changes - its generous butter-fat content is always the same. Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is pure, creamy cow's milk, with more than half the water removed. Nothing is added! It is twice as rich as ordinary fluid milk.

Make your cooking appreciated. Decide now to give your dishes added flavour and richness by using Nestlé's. When next you 'phone your grocer ask him to include a few tins with your order.

You will be sur-prised at the low NESTLE'S MILK cost of Nestle's.

*Oyster Stew

2 cups Nestlé's Evaporated Milk diluted with 2 cups water 2 stalks celery 1 slice onion Bit of bay leaf 2 sprigs parsley 3 thsp. butter 1 pt. oysters 4 thsp. cracker crumbs

dash paprika

Scald diluted Nestlé's Evaporated Milk with onion, celery, parsley and bay leaf 20 minutes; remove celery, onion and bay leaf and add crackers. Heat the cleaned oysters in their own liquid until the edges curl. Add to milk and season with butter, paprika and salt. Serve immediately. Yield: 5 servings.
