Japan's Army Might Again Force Concessions From China

Gen: H. Ying-Ching (left) couldn't defend it, so he told his government when Col. Takashi Sakai (centre), Tokio's spokesman, delivered an ultimatum calling for Japanese control of Peiping and area shaded in map, so another big chunk of territory has been carved out of domain of Chiang Kai-Shek (right), dictator and apostle of Chinese unification, by Japan. Japanese troops (note flag) threatened to march again into the ancient capital. Peiping, as shown on former invasion two years ago. Though the Nipponese ultimatum was accepted, supposedly ending anti-Japanese activity in northern China, the situation remained tense. The Chinese capital may be moved further south.

Port of New Westminster Was Opened Today With 75 Men At Work Behind Police Guards

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 24:- This port was reopened today as 75 members of the strike-breaking union, The Royal City Waterfront Workers' Association, operated behind an armed guard of 60 British Columbia police; and 25 city police. Pickets patrolled the approach to the waterfront but were unable to prevent police cars from rushing through and transporting the men to the wharf side. The pickets made one attempt to break through at the wharf head but were dispersed by police. OUTFIT GOES INTO NORTH Mrs. Alder Hostess
