Hepburn Three Percent Plan Is Shelved-Highway Considered

OTTAWA, Dec. 13: (CP)-All fixed committees of the Dominionprovincial conference reported to a full public session of the conference today after which the gathering adjourned. A number of the provincial delegations will however, it is expected, remain in Ottawa for a few days to take up individual questions in special conferences with the federal gov-

Refunding of public indebtedness was one of the important matters discussed by the conference yesterday All the provinces are, apparently, in favor of refunding but the methods of refunding are at wide variance. A proposal of Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario to convert all bonds at three percent was definitely shelved.

Constitutional matters also came up for attention yesterday, the general opinion being that Canada should have the power to amend its own constitution.
