Reception Given Visiting Clerics

Superior General of Oblate Fathers And Bishop of Mackenzie Welcomed to Parish

After a visit to the city of three days in the course of a tour of Western Canada, Most Rev. T. Laboure O. M. I. of Rome, Superior General of the Oblate Fathers of the Roman Catholic Church, and Bishop Breynett of the diocese of Mackenzie with headquarters at Fort Smith will be leaving for the east on this evening's train. The distinguished ecclesiastical visitors participated in services in the Church of the Annunciation yesterday and last evening a reception was tendered them so they might meet the people of this parish.

Speakers at the reception were Bishop E. M. Bunoz, M. P. McCaffery, Father Maurice Smith and Master Allan Burbank, the last-mentioned on behalf of the children of the parish. The Superior General spoke in reply to the welcome which had been extended.

Enroute east the party, which is being accompanied to the interior by Bishop Bunoz, will stop off at Lejac to visit the Indian industrial school.

EXPERIENCE IS THRILLER

Seaman On Norwegian Ship Swept Overboard Into Ocean And Carried Back Again

VANCOUVER, Dec. 9:—To be washed overboard in a heavy sea and then washed back on board again by a return wave was the unusual experience of Hans Peter Olsen, member of the crew of the Norwegian Norbo, which is in port here. Several members of the crew who had been horrified to see Olsen swept overboard risked their lives in saving him as he was carried back on again. The incident occurred in the Caribbean Sea and Olsen sustained injuries which made it necessary to leave him ashore at Cristobal in the Canal Zone for hospital treatment.
