Presentation To Chris Graham By Orange Ladies

There was a special meeting of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association Thursday night as a farewell party for Chris Graham, an associate member of the order who is leaving the city. The evening was spent in dancing and community singing and there were songs by Mrs. J. R. Murray and Mrs. Geddes jr.

After the serving of refreshments a presentation was made on behalf of the organization by Mrs. E. Barber, worthy mistress of the order, in which she referred to the loss they would sustain in Mr. Graham leaving the city. They were giving him a picture of Prince Rupert so that he would be always reminded of the good friends he had left behind.

Mr. Graham remarked that he would not need a picture to remind him of the good friends here. However, he was particularly pleased with the beautiful gift and thanked them all heartily for it.

The committee in charge of the event comprised Mesdames S. V. Cox, J. R. Murray, J. W. Moorehouse, M. M. Lamb, R. T. Anderson, A. McDonald and E. Barber. Music for the dancing was provided by Mrs. Larsen and Miss Rosie Smith.

J. Fred Ritchie B.C.L.S. left on last evening's train for Tye on the Skeena River on professional business.
