

HALF-ALIVE from one to five?

It's EASY to see when another man is slipping. But it's harder to face it yourself. So it was with Jim. For months, he vaguely realized something was wrong with him. Tasks that he used to take in his stride had become a grind. He dreaded the afternoon hours most. Minutes dragged. Worst of all, it showed in his work.

Sluggish days are often due to common constipation. This ailment has helped to sidetrack many a promising career. It is a great enemy of vigor. Your pace slows down.

Most frequently, common constipation results from meals that lack sufficient "bulk" to exercise the intestines. So many people make the mistake of dosing themselves with pills and drugs that often do more harm than good. The real answer is to get "bulk" back in your daily diet.

Scientific tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies soft "bulk." Also that this "bulk" is often more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables. This natural laxative food has been used with success by millions of people. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN oftener. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, with milk or cream. Have your wife cook ALL-BRAN into muffins, breads, waffles, etc. Remember, it furnishes wholesome "bulk." And also vitamin B and iron.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Six Bank Hold-ups In Vancouver And None Are Solved

VANCOUVER, Jan. 17.—There have been six bank hold-ups here during the past six months without any being solved with conviction of the perpetrators.

A reward of $5000 was posted yesterday by the Canadian Bankers' Association for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the bandits who held up the Powell Street and Victoria Drive branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce Wednesday and fatally shot Teller William Hobbs.

Five men, whose names are being withheld for the time being, are being held for investigation.

COMEDY IS REAL GOOD

"Bright Lights," With Joe E. Brown
And Ann Dvorak, Is More Than Farce

Not merely a farce but a real comedy, replete with thrilling action, romance, pathos and laughter, is Joe E. Brown's starring picture "Bright Lights," which is being featured on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this week-end. In addition, it has four catchy songs as well as several specialty numbers in which beautiful dancing girls participate.

J. E. Brown portrays the part of a small time burlesque comedian in a troupe which is touring the provinces. His wife and stage partner is Ann Dvorak. A runaway madcap heiress, played by Patricia Ellis, eludes detectives and joins the burlesque troupe. On the train is William Gargan, advance man for a New York stage production, who picks up the Brown act, teams Joe and Miss Ellis in a Broadway show and leaves Miss Dvorak out of the picture. There is a flirtatious affair between Joe and his new partner which, of course, ends just as it should.

Special mention is due to Joseph Cawthorn, Arthur Treacher, Henry O'Neill and Gordon Westcott, who are important members of the supporting cast.

No matter whether or not one is a confirmed Joe E. Brown addict, he will feel better after seeing "Bright Lights," it is said.
