LAST NIGHT

William Balagno Given Great Demonstration of Appreciation By Large Audience

Led by William violin virtuoso, formerly of this city but for some years a member of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra and otherwise prominent in the musical life of the Puget Sound metropolis, four Balagnos joined last night at First Presbyterian Church to give lovers of better music in Prince Rupert a treat such as they are all too seldom afforded. It was a great evening for an audience which filled the commodious auditorium of the church, making it necessary to find extra seating accommodation to provide for all. Nor was there lack of appreciation. Indeed there was one ovation after another and it was a tribute indeed to the artists Of course, William Balagno was the drawing card of the evening but the assistance he received from his brother, Charles, who put in a heavy evening's work as accompanist, incidentally, never being in better form, and his nieces, Marie and Charlotte, the former as piano soloist and the latter who accompanied the last number on the program, did a full share to make for the general excellence of the re-

DONT PLAY TAG WITH

It's a losing proposition trying to beat the Weather Man at his own game. Remember-you can kid yourself that no harm is done by waiting until your gears are stiff from "frozen" grease ... or your oil takes several minutes to flow freely . . . or your radiator spurts forth those tell-tale streams of steam-but kidding yourself certainly won't save your pocket from repair bills later.
