STEAMER NORTH SEA IN STRANDING UP COAST; IS REPORTED BADLY HOLED BECOMES

Was on Her Way From Western Alaska to Ketchikan When She Struck on Point Marsh in Dense Fog This Morning

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W. Nickerson, while bound into Ketchikan from the west coast of Southeastern Alaska, went aground in a dense fog at 4 o'clock this morning at Point Marsh on result of a decree promulgated | maiden flight to the United + the southwest tip of Prince of Wales Island but was able last night greatly extending his + States in forty-eight hours + to refloat herself on the rising tide about a couple of powers. Chancellor Kurt von + and twenty-seven and a half + convicts broke loose from Oklahours later. Reported to be badly holed, she was proceeding this ... morning to Ketchikan under her Divorce Decrees own power. It was announced this afternoon that she had arrived safely at Ketchikan.

An order was sent here for tugs and salvage equipment but this was not acted upon after it was learned she was refloated. An examination at Ketchikan will deterbrought here for dry docking or tice D. A. McDonald: whether she will be able to continue her voyage to Seattle.

The North Sea is a well known co-respondent. veteran vessel of this coast, having former'y been the Admiral Line | Hadland; Salmar Cornelius Hadsteamer Admiral Peoples. A couple land, co-respondent. of years ago she was acquired by the Northland Transportation Co. and practically rebuilt.

The North Sea was to have called here after Ketchikan to discharge fish for trans-shipment east over Canadiar. Nationa! Railways.

Inaccurate Report

Dispatches from Seattle today stated that the Bremerton naval station had intercepted a message from the steamship North Sea stating "we are sinking." The message, which does not appear to have been accurate, added that 180; passengers and members of the crew had taken to the lifeboats. The ship's position was given in this message as Dixon's Entrance, Alaska waters.
