TALKING PARLEYS

Britain Not Prepared to Dismiss Hitler's Latest Proposals—Wants Military Staff

DER FUEHRER FIRM Absolutely Refuses to Undertake Not to Fortify Rhineland

LONDON, April 3: (CP)—It was intimated in official quarters last night that the British government was not disposed to favor the proposal of the French government to call a conference at which other Locarno signatories would reject Reichfuhrer Adolph Hitler's proposals for revision of the treaty.

France feels that the adoption of the Hitler scheme would mean the end of the League of Nations.

Meantime, Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin declared that it was important that there should be no more delay than is necessary in calling proposed military staff consultations between Great Britain, France and Belgium to consider action to be taken should one of the three nations be attacked by any outsiders.

Germany Refuses Point blank German refusal to promise not to fortify the Rhineland, even temporarily, was delivered to the British government today.

BRUNO HAS MAY PAY LOST AGAIN

Wendel Investigation Discontinued—Hauptmann To "Burn" Tonight

TRENTON, N.J., April 3: (CP)—Removing what should be the last obstacle to the carrying out of the execution tonight of Bruno Richard Hauptmann for the kidnap-murder of Charles Augustus Lindbergh jr., the Mercer County grand jury last night discontinued its investigation into the circumstances of the repudiated "confession" of Paul H. Wendel, Trenton lawyer.

It was pending the conclusion of the investigation that Warden Kimberling at the last moment postponed Hauptmann's execution from Tuesday night until tonight.

As the zero hour for Hauptmann again approaches, the defence is leaving no stone unturned to circumvent the carrying out of the extreme penalty.

LOOKS LIKE END Col. Kimberling said today that "as it stands now it looks as if the execution will go through."

Premier Aberhart Still Hopeful of Paying Maturity Which Fell Due This Week

EDMONTON, April 3: (CP)—Premier William Aberhart of Alberta still hopes to be able to redeem the $3,200,000 maturity on bonded indebtedness on which the province defaulted on Wednesday.

The Premier announced yesterday that the Imperial Bank of Canada had agreed to advance a loan to the province to be added to the amount put up from sinking funds, requiring, however, that the loan be secured by a federal guarantee.

Mr. Aberhart stated that negotiations were now on with Ottawa in the hope of securing the guarantee.

The Legislature yesterday gave second reading to the conversion bill providing for compulsory conversion of the province's entire debt of $161,000,000 into perpetual securities paying a minimum of 2.5 percent.
