

GRAHAM ISLAND TO BE GREAT PLEASURE RESORT

Genial Climate, Level Sand Beaches, Well Stocked Rivers and Good Shooting Combined With Good Boat Service Will Make the Island Popular

(Special Correspondence)
Masset, Oct.—In the years to come, Masset Inlet will be a tourist resort. The beautiful stretches of beach, with the wild flowers and fruits, and the opportunities for fishing and boating, will attract visitors in large numbers. The owners of launches convey passengers to the streams and rivers; along the banks are grassy spots for summer homes, where bathing can be indulged in. With a gun and fishing rod the sportsman will find amusement that cannot fail to give satisfaction.

Along the east coast of the island are stretches of hard, sandy beach, twenty miles in length, on which automobiles will be used for pleasure and speeding. With wood, water, fish and game in abundance the camping grounds cannot be excelled.

Within eighty-five miles of Prince Rupert, the Queen Charlotte group of islands must add to the attractiveness of the fast developing northern country. Rich in oil, coal, timber and other natural resources, and with a climate that compares favorably with that of Vancouver Island, there are reasons why the next few years should prove that there is a country, right at the very doors of the people of this country, that will be inhabited by thousands of families.

Towns and cities must spring up on the Queen Charlotte Islands, and the opportunities for investment are within the reach of every resident. It is an almost "lone land" today; but it is within a reasonable distance of the terminus—no further than Victoria is from Vancouver and Seattle—and, with its waterways, resources, climate, and all that goes to build up a country, far exceeds any of the known islands in this country.

BRITAIN HAS A NEW TORPEDO

It is the Most Powerful in the World and Effective at Ten Thousand Yards.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The British navy is equipped with a torpedo said to be effective at 10,000 yards or nearly three times the range of the most powerful projectile now used in the United States navy, according to information brought back to Washington by an American naval expert, who recently discussed developments in gunnery, torpedo craft and the relative method of target practice in the British and American navies with some British naval experts.

The existence of this torpedo has been a secret and it was by a mere "slip" by one of the British experts that it became known.

NEW STEAMER FOR THE C.P.R.

The Princess Alice Left Newcastle Last Week on Her Voyage Round Cape Horn to Vancouver.

There will soon be put into commission by the Canadian Pacific railway in its Pacific Coast service a new steamer, the Princess Alice. This latest addition to the company's British Columbian coast service will probably be put on the Vancouver-Victoria-Seattle triangular run. The new boat, which was built by Swan Hunter and Wigham Richardson, Ltd., Newcastle-on-Tyne, was launched May 29 and left Newcastle last Friday on its way to Vancouver around Cape Horn.

The Princess Alice is practically a sister ship to the Princess Adelaide. Her engines are designed to maintain a speed of 18 knots an hour.

In addition to the ordinary coal bunkers the ship will carry fuel oil and the boilers will be fitted with a complete oil-burning apparatus.

UPSET APPLE CART

Much Mentioned Disaster Really Happens on Centre Street Yesterday Afternoon.

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good." When the flat rig carrying some dozen boxes of fine eating apples to the Northern Produce Company's store on the lane behind the Stork Block turned topsy turvy on Centre street yesterday afternoon there were soon numerous small boys on the spot like flies round a honey pot. One of the cases of apples got split in several bits by the crash, and a number of fine eating apples got so chipped and bruised that they were left to the small boys as wages for the service of gathering up the good ones. (F. Carl, the manager of the Northern Produce Store, was a boy himself once, you see). A "Daily News" reporter whose name betrays his nationality, happened to be passing at the time, and joined the happy throng. An apple happened his way and the verdict was "Finest flavored fruit in Rupert."

for very many years as a great and a rising city," said Mr. Cogger, "and to anyone seeking an investment or a new home the attractions that are to be found here offer the finest possible inducement.

Real Estate Prospects

"From information I received this afternoon it gives me much pleasure to know that several of the leading real estate men are going to the old country early in the New Year with financial enterprises which owing to the nature and conditions of the schemes they are about to place before the British public will, I am sure, be readily taken up. The influx of British capital into Canada is increasing day by day, and this will undoubtedly continue for many years to come. British Columbia offers unique attractions for the British investor in that its manufactures, mining, agriculture, and fisheries are unparalleled, and can be found nowhere else in the world. Prince Rupert as the centre of so rich a district inland, and with such wealth of fisheries at her door is bound to flourish.

Get Good Citizens

"It is important to secure the right type of immigrant for a city such as this," said Mr. Cogger. "This is a matter which should receive careful attention at the hands of the city council, inasmuch as an undesirable class would not only be worse than useless but would do the city a great deal of harm which should be avoided at all costs.

"It would be in the interests of the city for the gentlemen who are proceeding to England in the New Year to bear this important matter in mind and interview the Canadian Immigration Agents in London as to this cogent factor in the upbuilding of the city. A strong step should be taken at once in regard thereto."

Social Life Here

Regarding the life of Prince Rupert socially, and as a community Mr. Cogger was favorably impressed with all he has seen so far. He commends Prince Rupert citizens on retaining the franchises of telephone, lighting and water. He is pleased that the city is awake to the importance of good sewerage systems, and that natural advantages favor their construction. Regarding municipal ownership of utilities Mr. Cogger said: "The securing of this redounds certainly to the credit of the citizens. Municipal ownership throughout the world is always desirable. Private enterprise in this direction unfortunately has its limitations although it has undoubtedly many advantages in other directions."

There can be no doubt that Prince Rupert has very favorably impressed Mr. Cogger, and that will give widespread expression to the city's advantages and attractions through the pages of "Canada" which goes into the homes of capitalist and home-seeker alike in the Old Land, and circulates all over the world.

The action of the Cigarmakers' International Union in adopting a label to distinguish its products from those of ill-paid convict, Asiatic, or child labor, was gradually followed by other labor organizations, until now there are seventy-nine union labels in use in the United States.
