E Verner of San Francisco. ton; A Watt, C.N.R.; J. Cook, Win- Mrs. Verner and their little boy, George Little of Terrace, Joe Bell and Mry. Bell constitute a party which is out on a prospecting tour of the hills adjacent to Kalum Lake. Weather conditions are ideal for the trip and, the three men being experts in the mining field, make it seem likely that something useful will be discovered.

> A. L. Ducharme and his daughter, Mrs. A. Brown, and child have aken up residence in J. K. Gordon's house on Kalum Street. Mr. Ducharme is a carpenter and builder who has built and repaired the Catholic churches in Central British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry King left on Monday night's train for a visit with relatives in Alberta. They expect to be away a month.

Charlotte Islands.

The Board of Trade is considering the advisability of approaching the government on the matter of making safe the large area of land which, since the recent flood of the Skeena river, is threatened the next time the river goes into high. Some twenty families are affected and probably ten thousand acres of land, much of which is improved.
