I'LL STOP that COUGH!

says Dr. Mustard with a good old mustard bath

Take a pail of water, good and hot, and put in a tablespoonful of Colman's mustard. Wrap up well and soak your feet for 15 minutes. Then slip into bed, pull the covers up well and sweat out the poisons while you have a good night's sleep. You'll feel different in the morning. It is a simple, old-time remedy but there is nothing better.

Whenever you feel a cold coming on, nip it in the bud with a mustard bath.
