Sacred Concert At United Church Is Greatly Enjoyed

Featuring the oratorio "The Crucifixion," a very creditable sacred concert was presented Good Friday night by the augmented choir of First United Church under the direction of J. S. Wilson. Owing to inclement weather, the attendance was not as large as might have been hoped for but all present were very appreciative of the effort.

The first part of the program included "Magnificat" by the choir; duet, "O Divine Redeemer" (Gounod), Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Large; solo, "Fear Not, O Israel" (Buck), Mrs. H. N. Brocklesby; quartette "God is a Spirit," Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Large, Mrs. P. C. Miller and J. S. Wilson.

Soloists in "The Crucifixion" were J. E. Davey, Dr. R. G. Large, Leonard Cripps and A. J. Lancaster.

Miss Swana Olafson presided at the pipe organ.

On charges of permitting the operation of motorvehicles by drivers not in possession of chauffeurs' licences, H. Mochida and the Goodwill Grocery have been summoned into city police court this afternoon. The cases arise out of convictions of Kimo Ino and Kidd Sang respectively on charges of driving delivery cars without chauffeurs' licences, both having been fined $10, with option of seven days' imprisonment. The police point out that car owners are equally liable when they employ drivers not having chauffeurs' licences.

Chris Elkins Is
B. I. Speaker

Presentation Made to Secretary-Treasurer at Meeting Last Evening

The regular meeting of the British Israel Society, Prince Rupert branch, took place in the Toc H Rooms last evening, a good gathering of members being present. President R. H. Linzey was in the chair.

Chris Elkins read an interesting paper on "Fish Bones," passages in the Scripture unintelligible to many students until British Israel knowledge is applied when the Book is understood as never before. The foundation of belief, the speaker said, rests on the solemnly sworn unconditional covenants contained in the Bible, the inspired word of God. This knowledge, with the study of history it entailed, furnished indisputable proof of the truth of the Bible.

During the Lord's ministry on earth he taught by means of parables, all concerning some Kingdom for they all started—"The Kingdom of God is like unto" or "The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto."

In Luke 19, 12 and 13, the Kingdom was likened to a nobleman who went to a far country and told his ten servants to occupy until he returned. Here the nobleman was the Lord himself. Who are the ten servants he referred to if they were not the ten tribes of the House of Israel? Who could deny the existence of these ten servants today who were occupying until the return of our Lord? Isaiah 41 and onwards told where these people were to be found.

Innumerable instances were given by the speaker of God's wonderful promises to Israel both in the old and new testaments that, so long as sun, moon and stars endured, they should be a nation, the most tremendous destiny ever promised to mortal people.

A pleasant little event took place when the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jacobs was presented by the members with a lovely Easter lily in appreciation of her services.
