The School Concert and Christ- Friday. mas Tree was held in the United Church last evening.

A very impressive service was held on Sunday night in the United Church here when the pastor, Rev. Bishop Black, installed the new choir. Twelve officers and a large number of members were given the right hand of felsis lowship and were duly accepted. The choir officers were elected on the previous Friday night People here are proud of their new choir.

Assorted Nuts a very fine concert was given by the choir members under the directorship of Mr. Russ, the choir leader, with Walter Wesley presiding at the organ.

> Anthems, part songs, solos, instrumental music etc., were effectively rendered, several numbers being requested to return. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid and a sale of cakes followed. The proceeds of the evening were very satisfactory and were turned over to the choir treasurer.

Pending the arrival of Santa Claus (G. Morrison), Rev. B. Shearman gave parents and friends an address, emphasizing the fact of the incompleteness of he Christmas concert by the regrettable absence of Captain G. C. Mortimer, Indian Agent. Sincere wishes were expressed for his speedy recovery and active refurn to duty in the interest of the natives.

Santa Claus arrived amid bells, clapping and excitement, and then there was the happy and cheery distribution. Everything passed off most happily.

Rev. Mr Moore, United Church pastor, proposed thanks to Rev. B. Shearman and compliments on the concert and work shown all around the school. His remarks were responded to by Rev. B. Shearman, who called for three cheers for his wife who had done o much of the organizing and
