Popular Jap Youth Buried

Funeral of Sadoa Shinga at Port Essington on Monday

PORT ESSINGTON, Nov. 4.—Sadoa Shinga, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Shinga, who was suffocated by carbon monoxide gas while sleeping in a boat with two other boys at Chemainus, Vancouver Island, was buried here Monday. The funeral procession which was led by the Port Essington Indian Band, was one of the largest ever seen here. The service, was held in the Pierce Memorial United Church, being conducted by the Rev. Frank Bushfield. Miss C. D. Clark R.N., presided at the organ and the singing was led by a choir made up of Japanese and Indian girls.

The esteem in which the young man was held in the community was revealed by the abundance of floral contributions.

M. Shikatani conveyed the sympathy of the Skeena Fishermen's Association. Mr. Nakagawa spoke on behalf of the parents of the Japanese community and M. Naida expressed the sympathy of the Young Men's Association of which Sadoa was a member. At the close of the service in the cemetery M. Nagami and M. Usuel at the request of the parents, thanked the friends who had contributed flowers and in many other ways had shown their kind sympathy. M. Usuel spoke in English.

Hallowe'en At Terrace

Big Masquerade in Orange Hall—Night Was Quiet With Little Damage

TERRACE, Nov. 4.—Hallowe'en passed off quietly in Terrace. The Village Corporation had taken the precaution of engaging a special constable for the purpose of restraining the enthusiasm of those young people who might play pranks upon gates, chimney pots, garden rollers, and other things not too heavy to move into places where they did not belong. There was one pile of lumber, however, scattered over the roadway just south of the railway which brought the doctor to a quick stop while on his way to visit a patient.

The masquerade in the Orange Hall went off very well. The room proving too small for the big crowd which attended for the dancing. There were several prizes, and many excellent costumes were in evidence. A. Attree, as the Rajah of Bon, got a prize. So did Mrs. Moren, who crawled into the hall in a very good representation of a tortoise. She was compelled to remain under her shell until the judging was over. Other prize-winners were Mrs. H. L. McKenney, as Aunt Jemima; Miss Mary Maxam; Miss E. Longworth; Miss Ivan Frank Miss Theresa Des Jardins; J. W. Connell and Mr. Mills. The judges were C. Lindstrom of Remo, Mrs. F. Morris of Terrace and Miss A. Winthrop of Terrace. Other notable costumes were those of Mrs. Hinchliffe as a Scottish lass; Mrs. Herbert, nurse; R. W. Riley, ghost; Mrs. Brown, Spanish lady; Kenneth Attree, corporal of the Mounties; Bert West, Gypsy; Merle West, Gypsy girl; Mrs. Parker, black mammy; N. Sherwood, artist; Mrs. Sherwood, Chinese lady; E. Moore, Japanese lady; Mrs. Head, daughter of Aunt Jemima; Jennie King, Dutch boy; and Mrs. Kirkaldy, Miss Velma Grieg and Miss Helen Grieg, Sleepy Time.

The hall was tastefully decorated with black and orange streamers, black cats, witches and owls. There were about two hundred persons in attendance at the affair which was in progress from 9:30 p.m. until 3:30 a.m.

Another Shower For Popular Bride

Last evening Miss Kay Watson and Mrs. Berg were joint hostesses at the latter's home at a delightful kitchen shower in honor of Miss Beulah McKinley, whose marriage to Gordon Daniels is to take place on Friday evening of this week.

The evening was spent in playing bridge. Prize winners were: men's first, Miss Beulah McKinley; second, Miss Audrey Wrathall; consolation, Miss Cathie Eastman. After delicious refreshments had been served, the bride-to-be was presented with a handsomely decorated basket which contained many useful articles.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah will be leaving Vancouver on a special voyage to Skagway and will be here Saturday morning northbound, local C. P. R. offices have been advised.

Cheerio America!

She came by aeroplane but leaves by boat. Mrs. Beryl Markham, British aviatrix, who made the first women's solo flight across the Atlantic from east to west, waves goodbye to New York as she sails aboard the liner Queen Mary, for home. Mrs. Markham's name has been mentioned in connection with that of Capt. James Mollison.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

In port yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 on her way from Skagway to Vancouver, the steamer Princess Norah was a crowded ship. She had no less than 182 passengers on board of whom sixteen disembarked here while seven took passage from this port aboard her for Vancouver. The through passenger list consisted to large extent of members of the White Pass & Yukon Route boat crews going south for the winter. Among them were Captains Campbell and MacKay, well known skippers, and John Scotland and William Vey, no less well known chief engineers.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived

TEACHERS IN MEET

Question of Salaries Discussed—Representation of Outlying Centres

The regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association was held last evening. After routine business matters were disposed of, general discussions were centred round the "B. C. Teacher" the official organ of the B. C. Teachers' Federation. The all round improvement in the magazine from the point of view of content and also of character was favorably commented upon. It was felt that more support might be forthcoming from the local association with respect to contributions.

Salary anomalies were discussed. The unfortunate attempts made by certain interests to maintain salaries at a reduced level when generally it is admitted that conditions are improved were also under discussion. Unless salaries are sufficiently attractive there will be no inducement for the youth of the country to enter the profession and a general lowering of the standard of education will follow.

The need for active representation of outlying centres on the provincial executive and the attendance of outside delegates at the executive meetings were emphasized. This point has also been reported upon by associations from the southern interior of the province and steps are under way to rectify the situation.

New members were welcomed by the president, J. S. Wilson.

DANCE AT ALICE ARM

ALICE ARM, Nov. 4.—Hallowe'en was celebrated at Alice Arm with a big dance at the Alice Arm Hotel, most of the people of the town being present and taking part in the proceedings. Music was provided by guests who took their turn about at various instruments, accompanied by the piano.

GOOD BILL COMING UP

Lots of Entertainment Presented at Capitol Theatre For Middle Of This Week

With two feature pictures, "Princess Comes Across," starring Fred MacMurray and Carole Lombard, and "Drift Fence," another colorful Zane Grey western, on the screen and the Capitoliens, under direction of Dr. H. N. Brocklesby, as well as David Jones, the boy soprano, on the stage, the Capitol Theatre is offering an exceptionally attractive program of entertainment for the middle of this week.

In "The Princess Comes Across," MacMurray and Miss Lombard are placed in a story peculiarly suited for their type of romance. Miss Lombard is a beautiful American girl posing as a Swedish Princess in order to gain a film contract. MacMurray is an accordion-playing singing band leader. The story is set from start to finish aboard a transatlantic super liner. The film has mystery, suspense, music, laughs and romance. Alison Skipworth and William Frawley are other important members of the cast.

Arizona of the law-defying cattle-rustling days is the setting for "Drift Fence" which concerns the adventures of a Texas Ranger in his quest for a band of desperadoes. The cast includes Buster Crabbe, Katherine DeMille and Tom Keene.

Tunesome and ever popular Victor Herbert music will be featured by the Capitoliens.

"Here's your round-trip ticket to everywhere!"

"Where would you like to spend the evening? London? Paris? Rome? Or at Chicago, New York or Hollywood? I'll take you there and back in no time and in the comfort of your own arm-chair. In fact, you can make a Cook's Tour of Europe and North America with side trips to Cuba, Hawaii and Buenos Aires, picking your own entertainment as you go, all in the space of a couple of hours. Day after day, night after night, I break down barriers; laugh at borders, immigration officers and passports. Why not come along with me. It's fun. And I'm easy to own. Just a small down payment does the trick. Ask about me."
