Duke of York to Take King's Place as Grand Master Mason Of Scotland

LONDON, Aug. 28: (CP)—The Duke of York is to become Grand Master Mason of Scotland in November. The Grand Lodge of Scotland this year celebrates its bicentenary. The King, while Prince of Wales, had consented to be nominated Grand Master Mason, and when his accession to the Throne prevented his acceptance of the office, the Duke of York agreed to take his brother's place.

In preparation for this coming dignity the Duke of York visited Edinburgh. At a luncheon prior to the meeting of the Grand Lodge, seven past Grand Master Masons were present, the Duke of Atholl, Brigadier-General Sir Robert Gilmour, Bart., Lord Elgin, Lord Stair, A. Hagart Spiers, of Elderslie, Lord Belhaven and Stenton, and Lord Saltoun.

At the lodge meeting the Duke was introduced to Sir I. Colquhoun, who expressed the pleasure of Scottish Masons at the prospect of the Duke's installation.

"In a few months' time," continued Sir Ian, addressing the Duke, "it will, I trust, be my happy duty to place in your hands the implementation of authority. Till then I must regard you as a visiting brother and guest and as such entitled to the highest Scottish privilege, that of a sure and very simple welcome. As the Grand Master of the assembled brethren and of Scottish Freemasons throughout the world I greet you as Grand Master Designate of Scotland, and assure you of our unalloyed devotion to yourself as a member of the Royal House, as a man, and as a brother."

The Duke, in reply, thanked the brethren for their welcome and added: "I do indeed feel proud of the great honor you have conferred on me of electing me to succeed you, Grand Master Mason, and more especially on the occasion of the bicentenary of the Grand Lodge."

"I can assure you, brethren, I will do all in my power to uphold the great tradition of Scottish Freemasonry," he said.

The Duke is a past Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of England and Provincial Grand Master of Middlesex.

Miss Anne Winslow returned home on the Prince Rupert today after a vacation trip to Vancouver.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Bringing among a good sized list of passengers quite a number of local people returning after holidaying in the south, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 1 o'clock this afternoon from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sails at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound. This is the final voyage of the Prince Rupert summer schedule prior to the inauguration of the weekly service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver next week. The vessel was delayed in arriving by fog off the mouth of the Skeena River.

According to reports received at the Daily News office the salmon seining on the Queen Charlotte Islands so far cannot be called good but the season is still young and the seiners are expecting a better run soon.

Arriving on better time than she has done for several weeks, C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, is due in port at 3:45 this afternoon from the south, and will sail at 10 o'clock tonight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Eagles Drowned Depression Last Night at Happy Gathering

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last night by the Eagles when seven new members were initiated into the Order of Eaglesdom. After the initiation ceremonies had been completed, the entertainment committee served up something new in the line of refreshments which all enjoyed.

Worthy President Robert McKay welcomed the new members in an appropriate address. The banquet was presided over by Worthy Vice-President Lee Dell, who kept things moving with a swing. The Rainbow Quartette made their first appearance with all the latest song hits of the day which brought the house down. Everybody had a glorious time and depression was forgotten about altogether.

The program included addresses by R. McKay, P. Gamula and Lee Dell, songs by J. Gibson, A. McLeod, G. Ronald, C. Phillips, duets by J. J. Willington and W. P. Hall and W. Gardner and S. Veitch, Recitations by W. Robb, Lee Dell, R. McKay and A. Gillis, stories by J. Gibson, Lee Dell, G. Hoehne, W. Hutson, R. McKay and F. E. Ellison and community singing led by W. P. Hall, A. Astoria, G. Ronald, J. J. Willington and W. Hutson.

Pianist was W. P. Hall.

Boxing Show Featured Boys' Band Carnival Program Last Night

A boxing card, the headline event of which was a six-round exhibition between Benny Windle and Darrow Gomez, featured last night's Boys' Band carnival program at the Armory and the free show drew quite a crowd. From a financial standpoint, however, the free show idea was not much of a success because, as soon as the boxing was over, the crowd stampeded for the exits without remaining to patronize the revenue attractions. Some went on to the dance in the Moose Hall which was part of the carnival program.

Windle and Gomez put on a good bout which was appreciated by the crowd. The former weighed 147 pounds and the latter 145. They put plenty of pep in to their fisticuffs.

The pugilistic program also included a curtain-raising exhibition between Ray Noble and Jim Bremner. In another boxing bout Jimmy Bremner took on Rufus McDames, a native deaf mute, who may not be able to hear or say very much but has a sharp eye. In barrel boxing Jack Campbell won over Freddie Calderone. Cliff Robertson over Bob Silversides and Andrew LeTourneau over Severino Dominato.

Bill Stone was referee. Jack Judge and Jim Bacon were judges and Maxie Heilbronner and Bill Drake, timekeepers.

The Boys' Band, under Bandmaster Robert Greenfield, was in attendance and helped to enliven the proceedings.

The dance at the Moose Hall was attended by about 125 persons. Music was by the Serenaders' Orchestra and Sam Joy was master of ceremonies.

Activities of the concluding night of the carnival will be concentrated in the Moose Hall tonight.

Mrs. J. R. Morin returned home on the Prince Rupert today from a visit in Vancouver.
