Halibut Landings For Season Pass Three Million Pound Mark—Cape Beale Has Been Heaviest Lander—Some Individual Records

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the 1936 season passed the three million pound aggregate mark during the past week, the grand total having reached 3,308,800 pounds of which 1,818,200 pounds has been brought in by Canadian vessels and 1,490,600 pounds by American. The landings for this season to date are more than a million pounds in excess of last year when the total landings at a corresponding date were 2,181,850 pounds consisting of 1,195,150 pounds Canadian fish and 986,700 pounds American.

During the week landings amounted to 385,100 pounds including 203,400 pounds from twenty Canadian boats and 181,700 pounds from thirteen American vessels. Prices during the week averaged slightly better than the week previous. The top bid of the week for Canadian fish was 6.8c and 5c received by the Bayview for 6,500 pounds and the low 6.1c and 5.1c which the Tugwell was paid for 1,500 pounds. For American fish the high price of the week was 7.7c and 6c which the Baltic received for 17,000 pounds and the low 6.3c and 5.6c paid the Rapid for 8,700 pounds.

So far this year the Cape Beale, Capt. Edgar Arnott, has been the heaviest lander of fish for the Canadian fleet at Prince Rupert, having brought in 78,000 pounds in three trips. Next heaviest lander is the Covenant, Capt. Hans Underdahl, with 66,500 pounds in five trips while the Capella, Capt. Dan Larsen, is third with 56,000 pounds in four trips. The Covenant has landed the greatest number of catches—five—with its total of 96,500 pounds. Canadian boats having landed four catches since the season began have been: Bayview, 22,500 pounds; Bum, 26,000 pounds; Cape Spear, 48,900 pounds; Gony, 41,000 pounds; Helen II, 40,500 pounds; Thrasher, 27,000 pounds. For the American fleet the Explorer has landed the greatest amount of fish—62,000 pounds in two trips. The Tahoma is second with 52,000 pounds in three trips and the Yukon third with 49,000 pounds in two trips. The Visitor has made the largest number of trips for the American fleet, namely four with a total of 27,000 pounds. American boats having landed three trips at Prince Rupert are: Betty, 43,500 pounds; Emma, 32,500 pounds; Frisco, 28,500 pounds; Hazel H., 46,500 pounds; Midway, 42,500 pounds; Sirius, 36,500 pounds.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 6:15 last evening from the south and sailed at 10:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. With the Venture now on the run to relieve her of her calls in Rivers Inlet, the Cardena, which has been late a good deal recently, is expected to make better time henceforth.

Delayed at Skagway discharging an exceptionally heavy cargo of freight, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, did not arrive here until 8:30 o'clock this morning from the north, being almost a day late. She sailed about an hour later in continuation of her voyage to Vancouver. The Louise had 47 passengers on board. Two disembarked here from the north while three boarded the vessel here for the south.

Mike Christiansen and I. Urseth of Bella Coola arrived on the Cardena last evening from down the coast. They are taking over the fisheries patrol cruiser Bonita Rock II of which they will be in charge during the salmon fishing season in the central area.

Capt. W. W. Mounce, pilot of the steamer Catala on the northern run, is now taking command for the summer of the Union Steamship Co.'s big day excursion steamer Alexandra on the Bowen Island and Howe Sound run out of Vancouver. He transfers this week-end from the Catala to the Lady Alexandra with Capt. J. L. Malcolmson relieving him as pilot of the Catala.

Seattle Halibut Landings

Five vessels sold 110,000 pounds of halibut at Seattle yesterday as follows: Helgeland, 39,000 pounds, Washington, 7 1/2c and 7c; Bonanza, 36,000, Whiz, 7 1/2c and 7 1/4c; Aloha, 14,000, Booth, 7 1/2c and 7 1/4c and 2c (cod); Diana, 10,000 New England, 7 1/2c, 7c and 2c (cod); Lebanon, 11,000, Washington, 7 1/2c and 7c.

Fresh herring supply for the halibut fleet at Sitka has become exhausted, according to word received here. Craig and Juneau, however, still have fresh bait.

RULES FOR GARDENING

Prince George Horticultural Society Holding Spring Flower Show Next Saturday

PRINCE GEORGE, May 23.—The Horticultural Society will hold a tulip and spring flower show in the ballroom of the Prince George Hotel on May 30.

The society has amended the rules for the annual home and garden competition which will simplify the judging. Forty percent of the points are awarded for general condition and appearance of the grounds, which includes walks and fences in addition to gardens. The balance of sixty points are awarded for condition and arrangement of lawn, flower borders and vegetable garden.

The competition has this year been divided into two classes, Class A consisting of three or more lots, and Class B of two lots or less. A cup put up by the society for annual competition will be awarded to the winner of Class B and the Reid Cup will go to the winner of the Class A competition.

Gardens will be examined three times during the summer at the following dates, approximately June 1, July 15 and August 10.

Judging Regulations

In judging the judge will be governed by the following regulations:
Design, general upkeep and appearance of walks, beds, hedges, buildings—40.
Harmony and grouping of trees, shrubs and bloom—20.
Condition of lawn—15.
Neatness and freedom from weeds, pests and diseases—15.
Neatness of vegetable garden—10.
Total 100.
Only adult residents living within the confines of the three communities will be eligible for the competition although minors may take whatever part they choose in the gardening.

No person may enter the competition while engaged in gardening as a business.

No competitor may hire assistance of any sort in his gardening except digging, lawn-mowing and hedge trimming.

Each garden must belong to the dwelling of the person offering it in competition, but the place may be either owned or rented.

Each garden must comprise the entire house lot on which it stands, size of lot will not have a bearing on the judging.

IN MEMORY FOR QUEEN

III, of Great Britain, and his wife the daughter of William II, of Prussia, Alexandrina Victoria was eminently of royal blood, though her prospects at birth of becoming Queen were not very great. Her uncle, afterwards George VI., was Regent.

He died in 1830 and was succeeded by his brother, William IV. In the fate of Kings when William died in 1837 his 18-year-old niece Victoria was the sole surviving child of the four elder sons of George III. Thus the crown devolved on her.

Queen Victoria's reign — the longest in British history — saw wide development and colonization of the Empire and great extension of power on land and sea. The Queen became Empress of India from a group of scattered colonies, sparsely settled and restless, there grew the Dominion of Canada, a strong confederation under the British flag. The far-flung provinces were knit in nationhood and the distant coasts bound by ribbons of steel.

The Queen died Jan. 22, 1901. Her son reigned in her stead, Edward VII, was the first to bear the additional and more imperial title ".....of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, King....."

WOMEN IN ELECTION

years ago. Business-like, 'county-for-county' battles for the women's vote began to acquire a routine pattern in 1928 and reached a marked degree of efficiency in 1932.

This year the fight for the women's vote will reach a high because the four years coming to a close have seen no between-campaign lull. Both Democrats and Republicans have kept up constant battles for memberships in their women's clubs. Both sides already have women campaigners in the field who go armed with facts and figures, for women are asking increasingly pertinent questions.

When the campaign gets into full swing the voters will hear from both ingenuities and stars among the women, of course. But the largest crowds are expected to collect for the seasoned troupers.
