NO WINNER DECLARED

None of Boats in Model Yacht Race Yesterday Able to Finish All Three Boards

Attracting crowds of spectators to various points of vantage along the waterfront, the annual model yacht race for the steamer Prince George's Cup was held yesterday afternoon on the harbor here but not one of the eight boats entered was able to finish the three boards so winners could not be declared. The race was postponed until next Sunday, weather permitting.

One boat, the Mycoma, owned by Lloyd Rice and skippered by W. L. Sandison, was declared eligible for the prize for the best time on any one course. The Mycoma was unfortunate in not winning the cup as she came first on two boards but was unable to finish the other.

The boats finished yesterday on the various boards as follows:

First Board—1, Mycoma; 2, Vagrant (Jack Gibson); 3, Nordic (Cyril Bowes).

Second Board—1, Talisman (A. J. Croxford); 2, Vagrant.
