Boy Scouts And Girl Guides Did Good Work Again

Santa Claus was a visitor in person on Christmas Eve to twenty-nine families with a total of 115 children, presenting 290 toys, books, dolls, etc. to those who would not otherwise have received any. This was made possible by Prince Rupert Boy Scouts and Girl Guides under the direction of Scoutmaster Percy C. Miller and Captain Muriel Brewerton. The Guides were responsible for repairing and dressing the dolls, supplying new games and repairing old ones while the Boy Scouts, with a little outside help, fixed up and painted the wooden and metal toys, etc.

This was the ninth year the Toy Shop has been in operation and over 2,500 toys, etc. have been distributed.

XMAS TREE AT CITADEL

Salvation Army Entertainment
Last Night Drew Large Crowd
—Good Program

The annual children's Christmas Tree concert was held at the Salvation Army Citadel last night with some 150 children and grown-ups in attendance. It was a happy and interesting gathering over which P. H. Linzey acted as chairman. The Prince Rupert Boys' Band, under leadership of Bandmaster Robert Greenfield, led in the congregational singing.

After Scripture reading by Major Eva Laycock and prayer by Capt. Elizabeth Robertson, the program included the following numbers: Dialogue, "Santa Claus at Home," six Sunbeams—Mary Pierce, Colleen Monteith, Verna Monteith, Helen Pilford, Gloria Cook and Mary Alexee.

Recitations—Margaret Wide, Everett Johnson and Arlene Kohonan of the Primary Class.

Solo, "Star of the East," Miss Rose Smith, accompanied by Miss Amy Houston.

Tableau, "The Coming Army," Primary Children.

Recitations by small boys—Earl Pierce, Reg Sampson, Herbie Pierce and Percy Sankey.

Selections of Christmas music, Boys' Band.

Recitation, Helen Pilford.

Action song, "Coach and Four," group of ten children, accompanied by Miss Maureen Kirkpatrick.

Dialogue, "Counting Eggs," Misses Clara and Mary Pierce and Capt. Robertson.

Recitation, Mary Alexee.

Vocal duet, Faith and Hemsby King.

Hoop drill, six boys and eight girls.

Kitchen Band: boys in cooks' and bakers' costumes.

Vocal sextette, arranged by Mrs. N. L. Jones—Bobby Carr, Donald Norden, David Jones, Danny Bal-koivitch, Boyo Guryich and Hemsby King.

At the close of the proceedings, Santa Claus arrived and distributed sixty Christmas stockings.

Vancouver Xmas Trees in Hawaii
Sold at $2 Each in Honolulu on Eve
Of Yuletide

HONOLULU, Dec. 29:—Six thousand Christmas trees were delivered from Vancouver to Honolulu by a Canadian steamer on Christmas Eve. Six-foot trees sold at $2 each.

The Ladies' Music Club was to have paid its annual Yuletide visit to the Prince Rupert General Hospital to entertain the patients with carols and other seasonal music last Sunday but the visit was postponed until next Sunday.

Christian Youth Society Dance

Eighty in Attendance at Affair In Oddfellows' Hall

Eighty young people were in attendance at the Christmas dance held last night by the Christian Youth Society. Held in the Odd-fellows' Hall, which was seasonably decorated, it proved to be a highly enjoyable affair. Dancing was in progress until 2 a.m. with Bruce Stevens as a very able master of ceremonies. Music was supplied by Balagno's Orchestra. Bob Irvine was in charge of arrangements.

Primary Dep't Of Sunday School In Christmas Party

The annual Christmas Tree party of the primary department of the Sunday School of First United Church was held last evening in the church parlor. Miss Edith Wilkinson and the teachers were in charge of the affair which was highly enjoyable for about thirty youngsters.

The early part of the proceedings was devoted to the playing of games after which moving pictures were shown by Rev. C. D.
Clarke. Then supper was served and a happy half hour spent around the Christmas tree from which gifts were distributed.
