Miss Churchill Meeting Brother

Dame rumor worked overtime, when 21-year old Sarah Churchill, daughter of Winston Churchill, famous British statesman, arrived in New York on the Bremen. The dame with the wagging tongue had it that the British statesman's daughter would wed Vic Oliver, Viennese-American actor, who met her down the bay. But, Madame Rumor got busy again a few hours later, for Miss Churchill's brother, Randolph, blew in on the S.S. Queen Mary and was met, as shown here, by his sister. Tis reported he had arrived to solve the vexing problems. ABOVE-

In the event of war the wholesale evacuation of slum areas in British large cities may be necessary because the houses cannot be made gas-proof. London may have to be abandoned as a food distributing centre due to its vulnerability. This composite picture graphically illustrates how London's slums are vulnerable to attack from the air.
