WILL URGE DISARMING

French Will Make New Peace Move at Geneva—Canadian Delegates Arrive

PARIS, Sept. 18.—France, it was intimated in official quarters last night, will open a new campaign for general European disarmament at the forthcoming session of the League of Nations Assembly with a view to ending the present arms race. The co-operation of United States and Japan, without which nations it is admitted no such move could meet with success, will be sought.

One of the first proposals of France will be that all nations should publish their military budgets, something which Germany, Italy and Russia are not now doing.

The disarmament campaign may later be broadened into an economic discussion, the French plan.

G. O. P. NOT OBJECTING

Would Welcome Recount in Maine Senatorial Contest, it is Declared

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Republican National Chairman John Hamilton said last night that his party would have no objection to a recount in the Maine senatorial election in which Senator Wallace H. White, Republican, was declared re-elected by a majority of 5,081 over his Democratic opponent Governor Louis B. Brann. Hamilton expressed confidence that the recount, if held, would only increase White's majority.

Discussing the grounds of protest as "violation of the federal election law," Hamilton had certain caustic comments as to Democratic pre-election activities in other parts of the country.
