IN FRANCE

of Nation This Week As Guests of Government

PARIS, Aug. 6:- French war veterans entertained 5000 Canadian conrades, making a tour of France as guests of the French government, to a banquet Sunday in the great Court of Honor of the Invalides, a palace built by Napoleon as a home for his old soldiers.

Marshal Henri Petain, the hero! of Verdun, presided. His arrival in the courtyard was the signal for a Georges Rivollet, former French pensions minister, said French veerans are proud to show their appreciation and friendship which remain as sincere as when the Canadians cast in their lot with the French in the bloodiest war the world has ever known.

Following M. Rivollett, Major M. . Gregg, V.C., Ottawa, said:

"I interpret the thoughts and feelings of all members of this pilgrimage when I voice their warmest gratitude to the government of France, to Marshal Petain, to the members of the honor and reception committees, to the veterans and to all the people of France for your wonderful generosity."

Marshal Petain, summoned by the blowing of a bugle, then approached the balcony of the Invalides, and in a ringing voice said, in part:

"During the war a daily communique from the front sometimes announced reverses, but for the Canadians they only brought news of victories. They were valiant soldiers whose courage knew no
