The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada," and, after a pianoforte duet by Mrs. H. B Rochester and Mrs. William Brooksbank, and a vocal solo b Mrs. William Miller. Mrs. P. Corby was heard. With her wide experience as a Provincial officer and as a delegate from Britis Columbia to the annual meeting of the National Chapter in Ottawa, her subject gave Mrs. Corb an opportunity to instruct as well as inspire her listeners with the achievements of the order throughout the Dominion. While here remarks were of special interest to the members of the I.O.D.E., they also impressed the guests who were present, as she dealt briefly with the various branches of the work-education, child welface. Navy League, ect.

In their efforts to raise fund for these activities, Mrs. Corby urged the members not to lose sight of the real aims and objects of the order, and the ideals for which it stood, mentioning especially "to draw women's influence to the bettering of all things connected with our great empire. and to instil into the youth of their country patriotism in its fullest sense." Stressing the need, in these days of unrest for loyalt Committees will be appointed to their Motto, "One Flag, One Empire."
