British 'Plane Crashes in Manoeuvres off B.C. Coast

Photograph shows one of the Hawker Osprey reconnaissance aer oplanes carried by H. M. S. Apollo shortly after it cracked up in the Gulf of Georgia, near Comox, B.C., and was badly damaged. The pilot and gunner aboard escaped uninjured. Wash from the British West Indies squadron cruiser upset the seaplane a moment after it made a perfect landing. It was turned end over end.

Picture of Outstanding Historical Interest Offered At Capitol Theatre

Cecil John-Rhodes, most outstanding figure in the history of South Africa, is portrayed by Walter Huston, popular Canadian-"Rhodes, the Diamond Master," which is the first of the week! feature presentation on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The bringing into picturization of the fascinating personality and great exploits of the remarkable British empire builder makes a story which lacks neither interest nor thrills. It is a British picture and among the principal figures, besides Rhodes, are "Dr. Jim" of raid fame, played by Basil Sydney, and Rhodes' bitterest enemy, the crafty and crusty Boer President, Paul Kruger, whose part is taken!
