Girl Guides At Story Hour In Demonstration

The Story Hour was held this morning in the Elks' Hall with sixty-three children present. The program opened with a story by Miss Winnie Cameron.

A group of ten girl guides paid a visit and gave a demonstration of bandaging and signalling. They also sang campfire songs. Miss Noreen Gibson was in charge of the group and spoke for a few moments on the work of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides. The others taking part were Betty Wilkinson, Kay O'Neill, Helen Brown, Muriel Eby, Edna McLean, Joan Baker, Audrey Watkinson, Norah McCaffery and Betty Borland.

Mrs. C. W. Dawson told a story after which the hour was brought to a close with a song in unison. Miss V. Feero was pianist.

Next week the hour will be for children four to eight inclusive and will be in charge of Mrs. Neal Carter, Mrs. Nelson Allen and Mrs. G. P. Tinker.

ANNOUNCEMENT: 80 TAXI and Messenger Service

We have tried to operate our taxi business under the former rates, but find our operating expenses do not compare favorably with the revenue received and are forced reluctantly to make a slight increase.

Commencing Saturday, March 7, the rate will be:
To one or two passengers, any point within Hays Creek or Morse Creek bridges, 35 cents; additional passengers, 15 cents each.
Outside points, one or two passengers, 50 cents.

Messenger service will continue at usual rates.

We thank our patrons for past business and request a continuance of the same.

Activity General in Preparation For Halibut Season—Princess Louise Coming Next Week—Reconditioning Cargo of Maid of Orleans

With the halibut fishing season opening on March 16, the early part of the month sees much stir from one end to the other of the Prince Rupert waterfront. Machine shops and boat repairing establishments are all humming getting the fleet in readiness for the year's work. After the quiet of the winter months, the activity on all hands is good to see. There does not appear to be a ripple of any kind to interfere with a prompt and orderly opening of the 1936 season. There is also a feeling of general confidence that this may be a better year from the financial standpoint than the last few have been. That, of course, is something that time alone will tell.

Mrs. C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, which arrived in port at 2:15 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints, after the completion of this voyage, will cross over from Vancouver to Victoria to be withdrawn for annual overhaul. She will be off the run for two or three weeks and the Princess Louise will be placed on the run during her absence.

Perishable cargo aboard the American auxiliary schooner Maid of Orleans, which was brought here this week by the Armour Salvage Co. after having stranded on Sarah Island in the course of a voyage from Seattle to the Aleutian Islands, is now being reconditioned at the dock of the Armour Salvage Co. where the ship is tied up. No instructions had been received up to this afternoon of what disposal is to be made of the ship and her cargo.

According to figures compiled here from available statistics, no less than 14,955,400 pounds of fresh fish was landed at the port of Boston alone during the month of January. Cod and haddock, as is well known, are the principal varieties of fish landed at Boston. The figures remind one that Prince Rupert, with its sixteen or seventeen million pounds of halibut per year, is by no means the only fresh fish port of importance in the world. The great amount of fresh fish produced on the Atlantic may sometimes be lost sight of.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. J. E. Boden, on the last of several voyages on the route of the steamer Cardena, arrived in port at 2:30 this morning and sailed an hour or so later on her return to Vancouver. The Cardena will be back on her regular run next week.

Inaugurating the ten-day schedule to Alaska for the spring, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, is due in port tomorrow morning from the south on her way to Skagway and other northern points whence she is scheduled to call here southbound on Thursday afternoon.

With party of local badminton players on board for a series of games to be played today and tomorrow at the smelter town, Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Algie, Capt. Reg Green, sailed at 7 o'clock last evening for Ocean Falls. The party is due back on Monday afternoon. The party consists of Miss Frances Cross, Miss Bessie

SOCIAL FOR FISHERMEN

Delightful Farewell Affair Held Thursday Night by Sons of Norway Lodge

Following a regular lodge meeting Thursday night, a farewell social for halibut fishermen, prior to the opening of the season, was held in the Oddfellows' Hall by the Sons of Norway, the affair proving highly enjoyable to some 150 persons.

There was a program of speeches and music after which refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed.

The program included an address of welcome by O. B. Sather, who was in the chair, piano solo by Peter Lien, vocal solo by Mrs. Anton Dybhavn, vocal solo by Ray Fossum, reading by Mrs. Hans Underdahl, vocal and instrumental trio by Ray Fossum, Miss Wick and Dave Hadland and violin solo by Dave Hadland.

Music for the dancing was by Dave Hadland's Orchestra and E. Greenstrand was master of ceremonies.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Hans Underdahl, Mrs. P. Wikdal, Mrs. J. Wick and Miss Rensvold.

More Trains And Mails Are To Be Requested

Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Will Ask Associated Boards to Back Up Request

The Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night on recommendation of the trade and commerce committee, decided to write to Olof Hanson, the federal member, asking him to use his influence to try to secure a grant to enable the railway company to provide a mail car four days weekly.

It was also decided to try to secure a four train weekly service all next winter on the expiry of the summer schedule and that the support of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia be asked with a view to securing the extra train per week.

Play at United Church Repeated

Large and Appreciative Audience—Presentation to Mrs. Manson

The play "I Will! I Won't!" under the auspices of the United Church Ladies' Aid, was repeated again last evening, there being a good crowd in attendance to witness another fine performance.

Following the play refreshments were served to those taking part and Mrs. J. Clavring, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented Mrs. John Manson with a lovely sandwich serving set, in appreciation of the splendid work done by her in directing the play and making it the success it was.

Before the play and between acts splendid music was furnished by Miss Nellie Lawrence's juvenile orchestra under the leadership of Billy Hadden.

Ushers for the evening were Mrs. Elmer Thompson and Miss Dorothy Styles and curtain pullers were Billy Manson and Alf Larson.
