construction of the G. T. P. but rather to the method of its construction. They were in favor since the people were to own a large share in the G. T. P. that they should own and run it all as a public concern without the aid of any company.

Will Be Investigation

There would be investigations of the G. T. P. and of other concerns of the late Government. Electors must remember that they would have to exercise patience before they could expect to see any results for Prince Rupert of the return of the Conservatives.

Post Office Building

Mr. Clements realised the needs of Rupert and pledged himself to see that substantial post office and other public buildings fit to serve the city for at least ten years should be erected—Comox-Atlin should have an appropriation of at least three times that of any eastern constituency.

Referring to the agricultural possibilities of the district he declared that not a cent's worth of farm produce need be imported from over the line.

Better Freight Service

He would endeavor to further improvement of the freight service by water so that the produce of the farms at Bella Coola might reach Rupert fresh from the soil.

Loves Liberals

He invited Liberals to come into the Conservative field, telling them that he felt convinced that they would be well content by so doing. He expressed the greatest confidence in Finance Minister White—a former Liberal—and a man of whose abilities Mr. Clements had the highest possible opinion. Mr. Clements concluded by thanking his audience most cordially for their reception of him, and sat down amidst cheers—and "He's a jolly good fellow" sung by the audience standing.

In a few closing remarks Alderman Clayton suggested that a central Conservative Association at Prince Rupert would help the whole constituency to help itself and the Dominion.

A programme of songs followed.

AT THE THEATRE

The Williams Co. Promote a Grand Farewell Performance Tonight.

Every night this week the Williams Comedy Company at the Empress Theatre have put on a better play than on the previous night. Tonight they intend to exceed even the splendid and convincing romance they offered in "Dora Thorne" last night.

They have selected for their farewell performance the well known comedy drama "Master and Man," in which Mr. Dave Williams has made a reputation by his masterly performance of the old Irish servant Jerry. Miss Pinkie Mullally who has made so many admirers here by her charming personality and talents will take the soubrette part of Chick. Theatre goers will remember some of the amusing passages between Chick and Jerry.

A crowded house is expected for tonight, the company having made hosts of good friends for themselves during their stay in town. "We are all anxious to show our gratitude to our Prince Rupert friends by making tonight's performance a great success, and we are hoping to return to you again next year," said Mr. Dave Williams on behalf of his company this morning.

UGLY CHARGE

Waiter on Well Known Boat Charged With Assaulting a Little Girl.

Samuel Hogg, a waiter on board the Prince John, is under arrest by the Provincial Police today charged with having indecently assaulted a little girl passenger on board the boat near Masset. The case will probably go to Masset for preliminary hearing.

PRINCE GEORGE LATE

Fog delayed the Prince George somewhat on her run this week, and she was not due to arrive till 3.30 this afternoon. A wireless message brought the information that Sir William White, of London, is on board, making a trip to visit the railway, in which he is heavily interested. He is accompanied by Captain Nicholson.

TO RAISE MONEY FOR MINING

Mr. H. N. Wright, of Hazelton, to Make a Trip to London—Is Owner of Some Excellent Prospects.

Hazelton, Oct. 20.—H. N. Wright, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Vancouver, will leave Hazelton, as soon as the management at Vancouver can send someone to take his place, and will go direct to England. His mission will be to raise funds for operations in which himself and associates are interested. He will also take with him options on some properties to put before people in London. All of these propositions referred to are close to Hazelton.

Mr. Wright is said to be interested with P. J. Jennings in the Hazelton Nine Mile Mining Company. Mr. Wright also recently bought the Amargosa group of claims on Rocher de Boule. This was a cash deal and Mr. Wright is the sole owner. The group is near the Trimble-Pemberton property, now bonded to John F. Cowan, of Salt Lake City, for a quarter of a million dollars.

WHAT SAYS MOTHER?

Airmen Like to Load up Their Machine with Youngsters

There is a growing tendency in Europe to load an aeroplane with children instead of grown-ups when an attempt is made to establish a new passenger record.

Children do not weigh as much nor take up as much room as grown-ups, so of course more can be taken.

On the other hand, should an accident occur the children would be sacrificed to the aeronaut's desire to break the passenger record.

Children very often have less fear than grown-ups and enjoy the sport immensely.

TELL THE YOUNGSTERS

London Coronation Police Had Candy Given Them All Day

The huge squads of police detailed to guard the coronation parade in London were given sticks of pure chocolate and bags of candy "drops" as the mainstay of their rations.

Strange to say, this diet was recommended by the chief of police surgeons as the very best for a hard day's work in the sultry weather.

Safe it is to say that the little English children for that day, at least, wished devoutly to belong to the police force.

SOMETHING WRONG

Most Marvellous Feat Ever Yet Accomplished by a Plumber

It may be that the feat attributed to the plumber in the subjoined anecdote is impossible outside the realms of the imagination, but within them it is a singularly pleasing achievement for everyone but the family on whom it was practised.

"You're wanted," said the small boy.

"Who wants me?" demanded the plumber.

"Number 137—the house you've just come from."

"Do they think I can work all hours of the day?" retorted the plumber.

"You'd better come," persisted the small boy stoutly, "or it'll be too late. Ma's got hysterics, and pa's gone nearly mad, and—"

"Look here, sonny," asked the plumber, "what's up?"

"Well, I think you've connected the wrong pipes, or something," replied the boy. "Anyhow, the chandelier in the parlor is spraying like a fountain, and the bathroom tap's on fire."

Bert Maxwell, the Giants' Southern League recruit, has raised nearly $3,000 for "Scotty" Walker, the Atlanta shortstop whom he hit on the head with a pitched ball this last season, putting Walker out of the game and necessitating a serious operation. When Maxwell was a member of the Atlanta Club he and Walker were bosom friends and even after Bert went to Birmingham, with which club he was playing when the accident occurred, they remained chums whenever the two teams were in the same town together.

A woman has done a big day's shopping when she has spent a tenth as much on it as on her car fare and luncheon.
