PROTEST IS MADE

Salmon Fishermen Object At Skeena Boundary Removal—Remove Politics From Boat Hiring

At a mass meeting of Prince Rupert district salmon fishermen, held last night at the call of the Northern British Columbia Salmon Fishermen's Association and the Skeena Fishermen's Association, a resolution was passed protesting at the plan of the fisheries department to move the gill-net fishing boundary on the Skeena River this year from its present point just below Skeena City to Point Lambert, a distance of eight or nine miles.

Another resolution asked for the restoration of the bounty on hair seals which was removed in 1931. Hair seals, the meeting held, were increasing at an alarming rate and were becoming a real menace to the salmon fishery.

A third resolution asked that the Department of Fisheries be given complete control in the matter of hiring of gasboats for salmon fisheries patrol purposes and that political influence be removed.

The meeting, which was attended by about 150 fishermen and over which Jack Roberts presided, adjourned to meet again when an answer is received from Major J. A. Motherwell, chief supervisor of fisheries.

FIRST OF MEETINGS

Universal Week of Prayer Opened In Prince Rupert

The first of the series of united Protestant congregational meetings in connection with the observance of Universal Week of Prayer in Prince Rupert was held last night in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral with a fair attendance. The theme of the meeting was "Repentance" and the speaker was Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafeo, pastor of First Baptist Church.

The meeting was led by Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of the Cathedral, and opened with the singing of the hymn "Rock of Ages" after which there was prayer by the Dean and recitative reading of Psalm No. 130 led by the Dean. The hymn "When Wounded Sore the Stricken Heart Lies Bleeding and Unbound," followed.

In his address on the theme of "Repentance," Dr. Dafeo read from John IV 1-16. Realizing that he was speaking to a Christian congregation, the speaker took as his specific subject "The Sin of Prayerlessness." He urged Christians to lead a life of prayer as exemplified by Christ. There was necessity not only for prayer but for repentance of the sin of prayerlessness. "Prayer changeth things," asserted Dr. Dafeo as he continued a helpful prayer talk.

The hymn "Approach My Soul, the Mercy Seat," was followed by two short litanies led by the Dean—"Confession" and "Deliverance"—interspersed with the hymn "Just as I Am." The closing hymn was "O For a Closer Walk With God." Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix D.D., Bishop of Caledonia, pronounced the benediction. Peter Lien presided at the pipe organ.

Tonight's meeting, at the Salvation Army Citadel, will be led by Adjutant Eva Laycock and Lieut. Hilda Bridge and Rev. C. D. Clarke will speak on "Faith."

Work of giving the steamer Prince Rupert her annual overhaul at the local dry dock will include docking of the vessel on the pontoons for hull work. The overhaul work, it has been announced at local steamship offices, will commence this week.

Timely Recipes

Cranberry Apples

One cup cranberries, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup water, 6 apples.

Cover cranberries with water and cook until broken; press through a coarse sieve. Add sugar, bring to a boil, add apples peeled, cored and cut in eighths. Cook very slowly until apples are clear and have absorbed the juice. Cool and serve with whipped cream as a dessert. Use apples which do not break up in cooking. Spy, Delicious Russet or Tolman Sweet are good varieties for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McEwen of Smithers, who have been here for the past week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Olof Hanson, left by last evening's train on their return to the interior.
