ST. JOHNSTONE AND ABERDEEN PLAY DRAW Two Men Lose Lives

THIS DEER, FROZEN STIFF, WAS HARDER TO KEEP LIVING THAN TO KILL; PORT ESSINGTON TALE

When such seasoned hunters as Stewart Donaldson, Canadian Surgeon Much Impressed Eddie Letnes, Henry Reid, Jimmy Flewin, Matt Wesley and Johnny Brown of Port Essington kill a deer there is not much news to that. But when they labor frantically for eight hours through the night, being reduced almost to ture of King Edward VIII, then the point of tears in the course of the task, to save the life Prince of Wales, slogging along
