Mineral production has shown expansion, wheat exports have increased, railway revenues are rising, and in every other line there are indications of improvement.

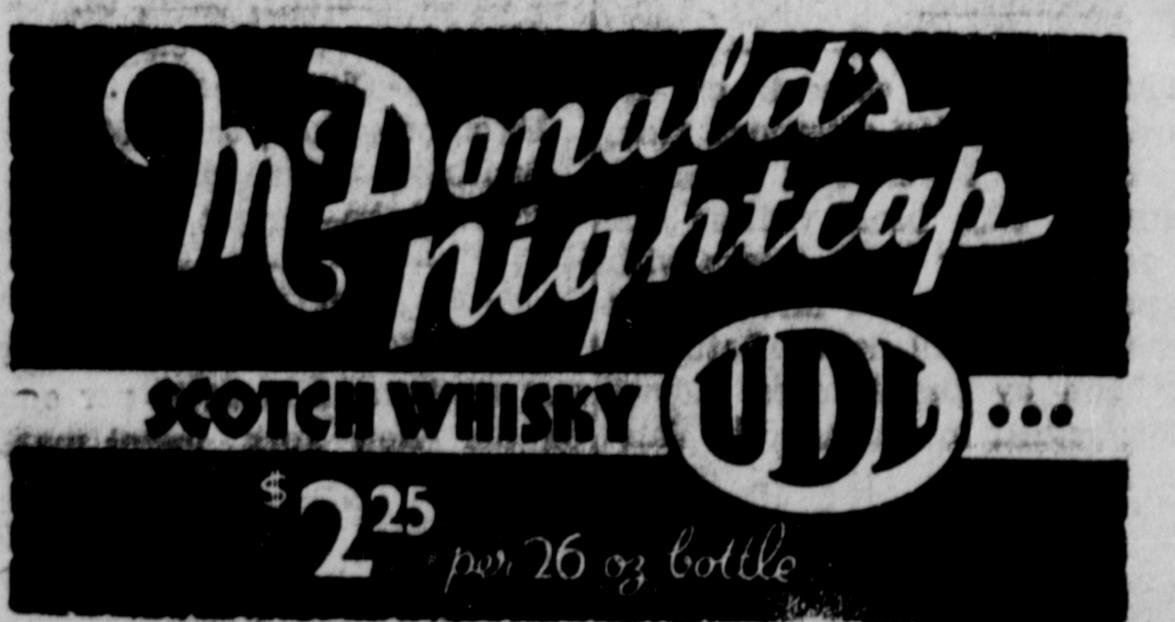

The Bank of Montreal has been careful in recording recovery improvements but this month it throws itself unreservedly into the role of optimist.

SOCIAL CREDIT IN MANITOBA

Social Credit was not well organized in Manitoba and had done very little propaganda work, but the propaganda in Alberta must undoubtedly have had an effect in A the older prairie province. At any rate Social Credit seems sin to have got away to a pretty good start, to some extent fourth boat on Khtada Lake and Veitch. displacing the C. C. F. movement in that province.
