TWO ELECTIONS COMING

Two provinces of Canada are about to elect members to their Legislatures. Both Quebec and Manitoba have had bits, pigeons, down to the timiest, Liberal administrations or groups which are preponderatingly Liberal. In Manitoba they call the group Liberal Progressive.

In Quebec there is a rebellion of young Liberals which black cat was the proud possessor since the last provincial election has been the chief factor of two snowy white kittens. Other in opposition under a Conservative leader. Now the young there, too numerous to mention. Liberals are going it alone led by Paul Gouin, son of the well known Liberal of that name, who was a chief lieu-lows: tenant of Mr. Mackenzie King in the last Liberal government. It is said that the Godbout government, successors; of the Taschereau administration, is spending money Brown. freely on public works and that this is having some effect on the electorate. On the other hand there is a deep-seated ter. feeling of the need of a complete change in Quebec and Rabbit, second prize, David Kristthis they may have without severing their allegiance with the Liberal party by supporting Gouin. There is no indication of the province going Conservative and the C. C. F. is practically unknown there.

In Manitoba Premier Bracken promises revision of tilla Sherman. municipal debts and a fresh start for people hit by drought in the farming areas; lower interest rates on private, municipal and provincial borrowings, a better deal with the Dominion and a better deal for farmers. He will probably be returned to power.
