this morning at 10:45, sailing at parties was that of M. M. Stephens, aboard Mr. Stephens' power boat Nine halibut vessels landed Vera S. Frye to Red Bluff at the catches at Butedale last week, re- south end of Pitt Island. Departure ceiving prices slightly better than was made Saturday night and return late last night. The water was found to be too high for any success in fishing.

Owing to stormy weather, salrict of Range 5 Coast, and situate mon deliveries at Ketchikan last week were very light and it appeared doubtful Saturday night if the co-operative there would have enough fish for its usual weekly carload for shipment to the United 116, D. L. 251, Range 5 Coast District States via Prince Rupert and the Canadian National Railways on Monday. However, it was hoped! that sufficient fish would be brought in Sunday.

SPECTACLE IN COLOR

"Trail of Lonesome Pine" is Outstanding Attraction on Screen Of Capitol Theatre

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," one of America's best known and most beloved stories, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre for the first half of this week in a spectacular and beautiful technicolor version starring Sylvia Sidney, Fred MacMurray and Henry Fonda. It showed before large and appreciative holiday audiences yesterday and will be seen again tonight and Wednesday.

Based on the novel by John Fox jr., "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is a tale of hill folk in the Cumberland Mountains and the feuds which set family to fighting family for causes long since forgotten. More than ninety percent of the picture was filmed outdoors.

The film presents Miss Sidney those prevailing at Prince Rupert for a total of 99,800 pounds. The and Fonda as members of the same mountain clan who all their follows: Mae West, 4,700 pounds; lives have loved each other and Sea Maid, 15,000; B. and Y., 18,000; warred upon a neighboring family.
