SATISFACTORY REPORT

The report of the Commission appointed by the Federal ing League last night, the scores wyn (5), McLeod, Davis, Wilson Grotto Department of Labor to look into the working of the re- being two to one games in each (2). Total, 12. lief camps is a very satisfactory one. They recommend that "work and wages" be given the men instead of the ning with an average of 141. present dole of 20c a day and food, clothing and shelter. Details of scoring: It is in line with the desires of the people of British Columbia who would like to see all the people employed at re- BIO. STATIONmunerative wages and who, led by the Premier, have been trying to secure that for the unemployed.

SMITHERS ELECTION

Evidently the people of Smithers have been taking their civic politics quite seriously and have turned out in larger numbers than ever before to vote for their favorite candidates. L. H. Kenney, who headed the poll, is well known in Prince Rupert and the other two members of the new council are businessmen with a reputation. We hope they will have a successful year and that Smithers will make progress during their term of office.

THE KING'S POSITION

There are disadvantages in being a king. For instance, he is supposed to wed a princess of the royal blood and there are only a very few eligible. The result may be that he will not marry or that the British constitution may be changed to allow him to choose a commoner or some other than a princess. Some people have hoped that he would choose an American girl and that Parliament would legalize the match. As King Edward is a modern king it is to be expected that he will move to modernize everything, even possibly the restrictions governing the marriage of a king.
