FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Editor, Daily News:—

May I, if you please, through the medium of your invaluable publication, bring to the attention of the sporting public of Prince Rupert a rather flagrant laxity on the part of our local football executive.

The Senior City Football League terminated some four months ago with the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve entry winning three of the four trophies played for. The Dominion Day Cup, first cup of the season, won by the Navy, was duly presented to them as part of the ceremony for that day but, as for the Stuart Shield and another cup, nothing has been seen of them. Is it the usual custom for the winning team to be forced to comb the town from end to end and make enquiries re. delinquent silverware or would it be too much trouble for our capable and efficient executive to present these trophies to the team entitled to the same? This latter method has been the custom in years past—why should it discontinue now? The various teams in the league fulfilled their part of a sporting contract by giving their best on the soccer pitch. Why cannot the executive complete its part of the agreement and thus evince the capability of its various members to uphold the offices to which they were elected?

Also, may we suggest a general meeting of players, fans and of course, our esteemed executive, to wind up the soccer year and determine just where we stand as there are other points to be thrashed out which might as well be taken care of now.

Hoping that this missive succeeds in the purpose for which it is intended and with sincere thanks to you, Mr. Editor, for your space, I remain,

"PRO LUDIS."

Sea Cadet Dance Saturday Night

Twenty-Five Couples at Happy Affair in R. C. N. V. R. Headquarters

On Saturday evening the local Sea Cadet branch of the Navy League of Canada held its monthly party in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve building, some twenty-five couples attending.

The hall was tastefully decorated in typical naval fashion with flags and lighting effects. Dancing to the strains of Julius Welle's Orchestra, and games occupied most of the time. Towards the midnight hour delicious refreshments were served under the capable supervision of Mrs. Anslow who also acted as chaperone for the occasion.

Walter Smith made a genial master of ceremonies and kept everyone in high spirits.

Charles Goldstein, prominent Juneau business man, was a passenger aboard the Princess Norah yesterday morning returning to the Alaska capital after a trip to Seattle.
