Another King's Memorial Held At Metlakatla

Another memorial service for the late King George V was held last week in St. Paul's Anglican Church at Metlakatla, the entire population of the village assembling to pay tribute of respect and affection to the memory of the late monarch.

Members of the village council, Young Men's Benevolent Association, Ladies' Benevolent Association, the Women's Auxiliary and the Church Army all paraded to the church which was draped in crepe.

The service opened with the singing of the hymn "When Our Heads are Bowed in Woe." General prayers and special prayers for the Royal Family were offered by Lay Reader Peter Haldane. Special lessons were read by William Leask and an address was given by Peter Ryan.

The King's favorite hymn "Abide With Me" was sung and "The Dead March in Saul" was played by the organist, Mrs. William Campbell, followed by a two minutes' silence.

After another hymn, the service was closed with the benediction.

Local unemployed held two meetings last week when matters concerning relief formed the principal topic of discussion. One meeting was held in the C. C. F. Hall on Monday evening and the other in the C. L. D. L. Hall on Friday night. T. McKenzie presided.

Junior Moose Busy Saturday Evening

Meeting, Banquet and Theatre Party Enjoyed by Younger Brethren

Members of the Junior Moose Lodge, under their dictator, Bob Elkins, were busy Saturday evening. First there was a lodge meeting at which five new members were initiated following which a banquet was enjoyed at the Knox Hotel with W. B. McCallum and T. O. Morgan, prominent members of the senior lodges, as guests of honor. At the banquet occasion was taken to present to Louis Crompt a comic cup won by the Junior Moose as a result of a basketball game following the Moose installation meeting last week in which the Juniors defeated the Seniors. Tommy Morgan made the presentation. After the banquet the entire party proceeded to the Capitol Theatre in a body to see the picture show.

Governor General of Canada who is the author of "Thirty Nine Steps."

Canada, is the feature presentation on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the first of this week.

The picture offers a series of high-speed pursuit episodes interspersed with clever and humorous dialogue and situations. Highlights include the spectacular escape of the hero from a moving train, the humorous interlude when the leading man is handcuffed to the leading lady and has to spend the night with her at an inn, and an effective last scene when a spy gang is rounded up in a London variety hall.

Robert Donat has the leading part of a young Canadian spending a holiday in London. He comes

Many Thanks Mrs. G.

"I have lived in Vancouver nearly 24 years," writes Mrs. G. "I can't say just how long I have used Pacific Milk but I have used it for a number of years and find it lovely in tea, coffee and on fresh fruits, in cooking and baking. I have used it for all purposes with great satisfaction."

Many thanks.
