Is baseball uncertain? Ofttimes this old question has been argued pro and con, but it has never been better verified than by scores of the post-season games played between National and American leagues club.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY
How to Entertain Young Girls on the Eve of Witches
Have one or two pumpkin heads for decoration at a Halloween party. Put lighted candles inside and set them on tall white-draped stands. Candles are best for halloween fighting in general, but if you wish you may shield the electric lights with several thicknesses of red or yellow fringed paper instead.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
An easy way to remove the tops from pineapples. Hold the "pine" with your left hand, and with the right give the top a twist, as though you were wringing its neck. Out comes the top and part of the core.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
A highly polished table may be used as a card-table without marking it. Cut a piece of felt larger than the table and run a casing around the outer edge with an elastic in it. This can be easily put on and will save many a finger-mark.

Probably the biggest surprise was the four straight defeats handed the Cubs by Duffy's delegation. The Cubs finished second in the National league chase, after putting up a tough fight for the pennant until almost the last week of the season. The Sox, on the other hand, ended in fourth position, a fraction of a point better than the Boston Red Sox. All during the season the Sox were "in and outers," one day being sixth and the next third, but never showing anything which would warrant their giving a tough battle to a team second in the Lynch league. Now they surprise every one, including their own supporters, by beating the Cubs in easy fashion.

During the season every one admitted that the Browns were, without a doubt, the poorest team in either of the big major leagues, one writer going so far as to say that they would be easy picking for any of the American association leaders, but according to the curious ups and downs of dope the Browns are better than the Chicago Cubs. To prove it, how does this sound?

The Sox toyed with the Chicago Cubs in the four games of the city series. During the 1911 season the Sox lost the majority of their scheduled contests to Cleveland, who proved poor opposition to Cincinnati in their recent series for the Ohio championship. Getting back to the National league, according to unofficial figures St. Louis finished the season with a big lead over Cincinnati in the year's clashes, and now the St. Louis Browns, last in the American league, beat the Cardinals, which, according to the above, ranks them better than the mighty Cubs.

any other articles distinctive of special dealings that you may wish to add. The seekers for fortune are blindfolded and fish with their left hands only.
Of course you must have the apple-bite contest. One hostess of my acquaintance strung porters of big beauties across the folding door space and everyone tried the test for three minutes by the clock, if unsuccessful, a whistle was blown, another apple was attached to the string, and a second relay took the places of the first. Your hands are tied behind your back, of course, but if you succeed in getting the coveted bite, you open the apple, count the seeds and get a separate wish for each one.
If you have some one who can tell fortunes, dress her a s a gypsy or a witch and she'll prove you

LA BELLE RUSSE
Thrilling Drama to be Staged by the May Roberts Company Tonight.
"La Belle Russe," the offering of the May Roberts Company tonight, will demonstrate even more fully the prowess of this excellent company.
The plot of "La Belle Russe" is woven around the story of twin sisters who lead very different lives, one being the unfortunate wife of a younger son and the other an adventuress of the worst type who tries to usurp her sister's place on discovering the husband has for years lost track of his wife in London. The ruse of "La Belle Russe" nearly succeeds for she is on the point of remarriage with Sir Philip Cathorpe who believes that she is his lost wife but she is foiled by her abandoned husband. The play is full of intense situations and reminds one of Belasco's best work.

HARD ON FLIRTS
For flirting and light behaving Rhodesian women had their noses, ears and lips cut off and Doctor Dunbar-Brunton has seen many of these creatures. For speaking against a chief the punishment was mutilation of the tongue and ears. For stealing one hand was chopped off at the first offense and the other hand at a second offense. This penal code was in full operation as lately as ten years ago. The present chief is a man of somewhat milder disposition than the one who produced the atrocities.
