The Prince Rupert Chamber of of the Legion generally. Commerce, at its meeting last! night, heard a complaint from the merchants of Queen Charlotte City Steamship Sailings that the Prince John arrived there after the fisherman went out with heir weekly supplies to the fishing grounds and this made it difficult to supply them with fresh fruit and vegetables. If the boat arrived on Thursday or Friday !! Anglican Girl's W. A. Tea, Mrs. would be a better service for the fishermen who leave at the weekend. The matter was referred to Ladies' Music Club Tea Musicale, the navigation and railway committee.
