May be Record Gold Output In Atlin This Year

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Mandy, recently returned from the Atlin and Taku districts, where Dr. Mandy, as resident engineer, was deputized to help the mining men of these districts in the development of the mining industry.

Dr. Mandy reports that Atlin is very busy with two or three hundred men working steadily in the mines. There is possibility of a record output of gold this year from that district as a result of the efforts now being made.

On the Tulsequah River development is going on well, considerable work being done and the prospects for future operations is good.

Slag Dump Has Become Useful

Old Iron Ore Cast Away For Years Now Used For Building Material

LONDONDERRY, N.S., Aug. 5:—(CP)—A new industry has sprung out of the Londonderry slag dump. It has been discovered that the slag waste from smelted iron ore, cast aside as worthless for many years, is valuable in the manufacture of a fine durable material for the inside furnishing of buildings, replacing plaster on walls and ceilings.

The finished material is both fireproof and frostproof, qualities highly desirable in this class of building material.

Considerable ore has been taken already from the old slag dumps and many carloads have been shipped to Central Canadian and other markets.

GULL LETS SUN THAW MEALS SAINT JOHN, N.B., Aug. 5: (CP)—Daily a big fat gull flies to a cold storage plant on the harbor front and boldly waddles to a place where men are loading frozen fish. The gull grabs a choice specimen, drags it to one side and calmly stands by while the fish thaws out.

When the sun has done its work the gull dines. The men are thinking of calling him "Frozen Face," because of his expression and his appetite for frozen fish. And the gull grows tamer and fatter.

Jesse Owens of United States Is Triple Olympic Champion At Berlin, Winning 200-Metre Sprint

Lee Orr of Vancouver Comes in Fifth in the Final But Two Other B.C. Men Are Eliminated in Semi-Finals

BERLIN, Aug. 5: (CP)—Jesse Owens, the "Cocoa Comet" of the United States, today won the 200-metre sprint in 20.7 seconds, four-tenth seconds faster than the new Olympic record he set in the trial and the quarter-finals yesterday, thus becoming a triple Olympic champion, having already the 100-metre race and the broad jump to his credit.

Lee Orr of Vancouver, having qualified in the semi-finals earlier, when Howie MacPhee of Vancouver and Bruce Humber of Victoria were eliminated, finished fifth in the finals.

Dr. Phil Edwards qualified for tomorrow's final of the classic 1500-metre run and 19-year old Betty Taylor of Hamilton, earned a berth in the woman's 80 metres hurdles. Dr. Edwards finished third in the trial.

Larry O'Connor of Toronto made the semi-finals of the 110-metre hurdles with a second in preliminaries but Jim Worrall of Toronto was eliminated.

Winnipeg's Jack Liddle and Hugh Thomson of Nanaimo failed to get through the 1500 metres preliminaries. Thomson finished ninth in his heat.

Sylvanus Apps of Hamilton qualified in the preliminary trials of the pole vault, the final of which was won later by Earle Meadows, Fort Worth, Texas, with a record-breaking 4.35 metres (14 feet, 2 15-16 inches).

Kenneth Carpenter of the United States won the discus throwing championship with a record breaking toss of 50.48 metres.

Judge Busy On Local Gardens

E. W. White of Vancouver Island Gets to Work at Once on Arrival From Terrace

After stopping off for a couple of days at Terrace, E. W. White horticulturist for the provincial government on Vancouver Island, arrived in the city early this morning and today commenced his work of judging the gardens and lawns of the city, starting in the Seal Cove district where Mrs. Norrington has him in charge for the Horticultural Society.

This afternoon he planned to attend the Gyro luncheon as guest of Frank Dibb, who is taking him out see the gardens following the luncheon. Another member of the society will have him in charge this evening and tomorrow he will address the Rotary Club as its guest speaker.

It will take several days to visit all the gardens but it is expected to have all finished by the end of the week.

The judge wishes it known that if there are any gardens missed by him, the owner may notify President Jack Frew or Secretary Frank Dibb of the Horticultural Society so that he may be given an opportunity to visit every garden that has any prospect of winning a prize.
