Cambrai Chapter Dance Enjoyable

Seventy-Five Couples Crowded Oddfellows' Hall for Popular Affair Last Night

Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, annual dance in the Oddfellows' Hall was, as usual, a very popular and enjoyable affair. Seventy-five couples filled the hall to capacity from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m.

The hall was attractively decorated in fall colors with maple leaves predominating. Music for dancing was provided by Johnny Saunders' Serenaders' Orchestra. Walter Smith was master of ceremonies.

At midnight delicious buffet refreshments were served.

Miss Muriel Morris was general convener. Mrs. T. A. McWaters was responsible for the arrangement of decorations and Mrs. T. N. LePage was in charge of refreshments.

Robert Irvine presided at the door.

Three Balagnos In Recital Here

Opportunity is to be given at the end of the month to hear the three musical Balagnos in recital. William Balagno, who has been leader of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra for the past seven seasons, will be the violinist. His brother, Charles Balagno, will accompany him and he will be assisted by his niece, Miss Marie Balagno of this city, who is looked upon as one of Prince Rupert's leading artists. Seldom has there been a more promising group of musicians in the city at one time.
