The members of the Cleveland baseball team presented George Stovall, their manager, with a chest of silver valued at $275 recently.

It cost eight members of the Chicago National League team $25 apiece to "roast" Umpire O'Loughlin in one of the city series games.

Less than a dozen first-class left-handed pitchers are drawing salaries in the big major baseball leagues. As a matter of record, good southpaws always have been scarce, no matter how far back you may go in the history of the game.

Two thousand two hundred and twenty-five miles from Philadelphia to Milwaukee and back on a motor cycle for $7.43 This is the experience of John Benders of the Quaker City. Benders went by way of Harrisburg and Cleveland and returned through Chicago, Albany and New York and used 26 1-4 gallons of gasoline and 4 gallons of oil.

President Tipton of the Kentucky Trotting Horse-breeders' Association, says the loss on the recent meeting at Lexington was $12,000. Bad weather caused several postponements.

Frank Nolan, owner of the Beverwyck Stable, has changed his plans, and will not sell his horses, though he disposed of Danfield to George T. Hoag, of Calgary. During the Woodbine autumn meeting an offer of $1,500 for this horse was refused in spite of the fact that he is continually on the starter's schooling list because of unruly actions at the post.

A deal has been closed by which Larry Schaff, formerly second baseman and captain of the Toronto team, becomes manager of the Jersey City "Skeeters." The consummation of this deal sets at rest rumors that the Jersey City franchise was to be sold to a Boston syndicate, and that Charley Hemphill, recently transferred from Chicago to Jersey City, would assume the reins of management.

The hockey game will know no more Jack Marshall, the former Winnipegger, one of the few remaining Little Men of Iron—as a player. The accident that almost destroyed the sight of one eye last winter when Jack's optic came into collision with the stick of an Ottawa player during the first strenuous match, in which Wanderers lost. Marshall was carried off the ice, and it was generally supposed at first that the eye was completely destroyed. Rest and care have nursed it back to working capacity again, however. But though Jack Marshall will appear no more as a player, it is altogether likely that a new sphere of usefulness in the sport in which he shone so long and so brilliantly will open up for him. It is said that he will be one of the regular staff referees of the National Hockey Association this season. If he handles the whistle there's a big future for Jack as a referee.

President Charles T. Chapin of the Rochester Baseball Club, says that the club has reached no decision on what to do about the fine of $1,368.32 imposed on it by the Eastern League directors at a meeting in New York recently.

At the end of the long seclusion he returned to his business and in twelve months confirmed the thoroughness of his recovery by amassing $500,000.

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

BATHING IN GOLD

Luxury That We'd All Love to Enjoy of a Saturday Night

A Parisian journalist who had speculated in railway shares won 200,000 francs as the result of a lucky venture. Drawing it in gold, he proceeded to a hotel, emptied the bags of gold in the bed and went to sleep literally in the sands of Pactolus. The man was so crazed by his good fortune that he found indescribable pleasure in revelling in a golden bath.

Paganini, the violinist, when he received the proceeds of his concert (he insisted upon being paid in gold), used to wash his hands in sovereigns. A French novelist, Soulie, wrote a book called "The Memoirs of the Devil." It was successful; the publishers paid him for the first volume $10,000 in gold. The author carried the gold to his bedroom, poured it into a footbath and enjoyed for half an hour the excitement of moving his feet to and fro in a bath of gold coins, smoking bull there, snow play sly comb," and so to the conclusion, there wasn't a dry eye in the room.

TWELVE LONDONS

The City Which is the Wonder of the World

No man living has ever yet seen London as it really is. There are, in fact, twelve Londons, one of which—the county—is controlled by 4,300 popularly elected men and women who sit on 144 public bodies.

The biggest London of all is the police London, covering 692 square miles; the smallest is the City of London, extending to one square mile.

When one speaks of London one must put an adjective in to describe what London is referred to. Here are the Londons, with their areas as known to the law:

City of London, one square mile.
County of London, 115 sq. miles.
Water London, 537 sq. miles.
Postal London, 220 sq. miles.
