BROWN IS PRESIDENT

Legion-Reports on Convention Presented

The half-yearly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion was held last evening in the club rooms with President Jack Preece in the chair.

Reports of the delegates to the provincial caucus were given by J S. Wilson and, after the disposal of routine business, the election of officers for the ensuing six months was proceeded with. Resigning from the presidency after holding office for three and a half years Jack Preece referred to the work that had been done. The renovation of the building and the formation of a Women's Auxiliary had been outstanding accomplishments and the membership of the branch had increased considerably. This had been made possible through the co-operation of the executive pressed with loud applause.
