

Informality Marks King Edward's Vacation With His Brother

don. The Duke and Duchess of Kent accompanied the King on his recent vacation through the Balkans. At right, the King is seen walking along the quay at Rab with Mrs. Simpson.
