Joe Louis Knocked Out In Twelfth Round Last Night At Yank Stadium

"Impossible" Happens as Brown Bomber, 20 to 1 Favorite, Suffers Ignominious Defeat at Hands of Former World's Heavyweight Champion

HARLEM TURNS VIOLENT

NEW YORK, June 20: (CP)—Harlem's disappointment in Joe Louis' defeat took a violent turn today and efforts of seven hundred special policemen were required to quell an outbreak of shooting, stabbing, street fighting and other disorders. Two negroes were stabbed, another was shot and scores of passersby, both negro and white, were assaulted in the streets.

NEW YORK, June 20: (CP)—In the greatest pugilistic upset of modern times, Max Schmeling, former German world's heavyweight champion, staged a smashing comeback last night at Yankee Stadium here, knocking out Joe Louis, the supposedly unbeatable "Brown Bomber" of Detroit in the twelfth of their scheduled fifteen-round fight and earning the right to meet James J. Braddock. the present mission with his dynamite-packed Babe Ruth Will title-holder, in September for the right hand in the following rounds, crown.
