Industry Now Moves Ahead Rapidly President Tells Investment Dealers

JASPER, Alta., June 20: (CP)-Confidence in Canada's future was never more justified than at the present ime J. E. Savard of Montconvention of the Investment Dealpresidential address here.

Industries throughout the Domhave moved ahead with rapid been sent abroad. strides. In many cases, he said, they are operating at all-time peak levels. Continuation of easy money hand markets and HEAT WAVE strengthening of equity and earning power behind corporation securities were cited as favorable facward movement with prospects for a more normal wheat carry-over at the end of the present crop year. In mining, Canada had advanced within five years from an unimportant position in the gold inwere running at high levels.

Sounding a note for careful financing and economy in governments the president referred to "unfavorable factors experienced in the past year" as "chiefly of a political nature of which Canada Sanity of Solon had more than her share."

"The year 1936 has been far more serene as far as political disturbances are concerned and I think we can look forward to a period Representative Zioncheck of Sea. We from now on in which there will be a greater understanding of the far-reaching effects of even a suggestion of repudiation."

declined from three percent, in should not be declared insane. May, 1933, to 11/2 percent in June of this year. The decline, however, Presentation coupled with the federal government's "easy money policies" had proved a good foundation for an extended period of easy money conditions in Canada. Development of a loan council for the western provinces, expansion of private enterprise in the construction industry and solution of unemployment through the National Employment Commission were referred to as problems pressing for immediate solution. The low level to which commercial loans have fallen and the high level of deposits indicates industry to carry on business, he said. Com- years' residence in Prince Rupert mercial loans in April totalled a member of the club. $725,425,000, lowest level in years. Demand deposits increased to $2,-157,900,000.

People Getting Along O. K. There Despite Hardships-Many Suffered Real Loss

"We are all OK. although we lost everything except trunks, clothes and valuables," says a letter which has just been received by Mrs. Thomas Boulter of this city from friends at Usk who suffered in the recent flood there. The letter says that four houses went down the river from Usk and practically all the others of the community were filled with mud and silt. Thirty-two people were cooped up temporarily in the schoolhouse at Usk at the time the letter was written. While there was plenty of damage, the letter observes cheerfully that there was no loss of life or injury. Giggey Coming In C. L. M. Giggey of Terrace is expecting to make another trip down the Skeena River by flatbottomed boat this week-end and may be here Monday.
