BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics periodically records that there is an improvement in business conditions represented by import an dexport, factory output, employment increases and various other indications of prosperity. One example of the change is made clear in a recent address by the president of Harold F. Ritchie & Co. Ltd. that has been trying to save Adjutant Olaf Halvorsen, Salva- ministered by Schmeling, who in which he spoke of the definite improvement in trade conditions throughout Eastern Canada He mentioned because the neighbors kept on rived in the city on the Princess backers made out a plausible case conditions throughout Eastern Canada. He mentioned buying new things. that the sales staff of his company was today larger than the entire staff of the organization five years ago. The speaker mentioned the value of advertising and said that those lines nationally advertised were showing the greatest amount of growth.

LONDON'S LORD MAYOR

The visit of the Lord Mayor of London to Vancouver caused quite a stir in the western metroplis. He brought with him a whiff of the old land that was pleasant to those who at one time lived there. He did his best to get in touch with a cross-section of the people of the west and trict of Range 5, Coast, and situate in General Hospital Saturday after proved a most genial and happy guest who showed his ap- on and Dundas Islands, being one-half noon, his condition being such that I preciation in anything but a stereotyped manner. King Edward's visit to Greece seems to have had some- thence east 15 chains; thence north 18 thing to do with the recent coupling of his name with one of the princesses of that country. These young ladies were visitors to London during the days of the republic and it seems quite possible that the King may choose one of them for his bride. Such a union would tend to improve Notice of Intention to appply to Lease political conditions in Greece and would be quite acceptable to the people of the British Empire.
