Visitor From Vancouver Is Tea Honoree

Mrs. William Rogers, Borden Street, was hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightful tea in honor of Miss Isobel Grant of Vancouver who is spending a few weeks visiting here.

About thirty-five ladies called during the afternoon. The tea table was pretty, centred with daffodils and red tapers and those pouring were Mrs. L. W. Patmore and Mrs. Thomas Andrew, while serving were Miss Blanche Curtis, Mrs. P. DeJong, Mrs. G. P. Lyons, Mrs. C. P. Balagno and Mrs. Ian Fraser.

Provincial Constable R. Smedley arrived in the city from Smithers on last night's train and sailed aboard the Prince Rupert for Vancouver, having in his custody an insane patient from Smithers as well as a local juvenile prisoner.

Terrace Girls Argue Successfully That They Should Not Get Franchise

TERRACE, March 20.—The Anglican Young People's Club staged a debate last Friday in the Anglican Hall upon the subject of giving votes to Orientals. The debate proved quite good and the speakers showed a surprising grasp of their material.

Police Seeking Homes For Pair Of Bad Youths

Two more boys of juvenile age were given two year suspended sentences by Juvenile Court Judge W. D. Vance yesterday afternoon and efforts are being made to arrange foster homes for them instead of sending them to industrial school. These two boys attempted to break and enter the Canada Railway News stand on the Canadian National wharf, stole two bicycles at Seal Cove and removed the Rupert Butcher's light delivery car. They are also the same two boys who made their escape this week from the city jail through a ventilator.
