Shower Held On Wednesday Night

Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Christoff Entertain For Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parker

A delightful miscellaneous shower was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Armstrong in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parker, joint hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Tommy Christoff.

The evening was spent in playing bridge, winners being: ladies' first, Mrs. A. Duncan; second, Mrs. D. Burnett; men's first, Jack Armstrong; second, David McMeekin. About twenty-five guests were present and the young couple received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served.

Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, left on last evening's train for Terrace to attend the funeral of the late Miss Margaret Kenney and will proceed from there next Monday night to Smithers.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Cash for old gold, Bulger's (tf)
Tonight's train, due from the east at 10:20, was reported this morning to be on time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Legg and child sailed last night on the Princess Adelaide for a trip to Vancouver.

T. W. Hall, inspector of schools, sailed this morning on the Cardena for a trip to Bella Coola on official duties.

Registration for the Recreation Centre will take place Monday from 2 to 6 and from 7 to 9 at the old Armoury Building. Men, women, and high school children are invited to join.

Miss Ivy Anderson, after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Anderson, sailed by the Cardena this morning on her return to Vancouver.

Frank Morris, manager of the B. C. Undertakers, left on last evening's train for Terrace, being in charge of funeral arrangements for the late Miss Margaret Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bryant and Mrs. F. N. Good left on last evening's train for the interior. Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Good will visit in Smithers while Mr. Bryant goes on a hunting trip to the Burns Lake district.

William Balagno, who has been visiting in the city for the past couple of weeks, will be leaving late next week on his return to Seattle. Tomorrow evening Mr. Balagno will render violin solos at the service in First Presbyterian Church and will be heard in another recital Tuesday night.

The question of poor attendance at the monthly meetings of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce during the summer was the subject of comment at last night's meeting by President Blackstock who urged members to attend and also to bring in new members. He thought 57 members was not enough for a representative body such as this. However, he was glad to see better attendance at this meeting.

R. G. Cunningham, after spending a couple of days in the city on business, left by last evening's train on his return to Port Essington. Towards the end of this month Mr. Cunningham will be leaving Port Essington for the winter and plans on extensive travelling. First he will pay a visit to Victoria and will then proceed to Berkeley, California, to visit with his sister, Mrs. E. Mathews, formerly Miss Hazel Cunningham R.N., who was recently married to a restaurateur. Mr. Cunningham from California will proceed to Honolulu and may later visit Europe and the British Isles.

BURLESQUE FEATURED

Floor Show Was Feature of Junior Chamber of Commerce Dance Last Night

Featuring a burlesque floor show which brought the house down with gales of merriment and laughter, the dance of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce last night in the Moose Hall was a highly enjoyable affair for about two hundred persons. It was staged to augment the Peace River essay competition fund.

The floor show included a female impersonation of the Folies Berger by a comic dancing chorus party consisting of H. G. Kennedy, Leonard Cripps, Lee Gordon, William Rogers, G. P. Lyons, T. N. LePage, Martin Van Cooten and Ross Ingram and trained by Miss Eleanor Tite; Slavinsky Brothers and Rosamonde by W. F. Stone, Sam Joy and Joe Scott, and the Baron Munchausen by Hugo Kraupner, assisted by S. A. Prudhomme.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Serenaders' augmented orchestra. Dancing was in progress from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. and delicious refreshments were served at midnight. Sam Joy was master of ceremonies.

The hall was effectively decorated with streamers and fancy lighting, Leonard Cripps having been in charge of decorations.

T. N. LePage was chairman for the whole affair. Gene Scott and C. R. Allum presided at the door.

GETS TWO MONTHS

Kenneth C. Brown was found guilty in city police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of attempting to contribute to the delinquency of a juvenile and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment. He was convicted of endeavoring to get a young girl to drink beer. Staff Sergeant G. H. Greenwood prosecuted and R. L. McLennan acted as defence counsel.

Wong Law Kai, Chinese, for vagrancy, appeared in city police court this morning and was remanded until this afternoon. He is charged with an indecent act.
