READYING FOR XMAS

Was Principal Business At Canadian Legion Meeting Last Night

With President W. M. Brown in the chair, the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League held its regular monthly meeting last evening in the clubrooms.

Arrangements for the usual Christmas celebrations were completed. The Christmas Tree will be held on Saturday afternoon, December 18, for children of members of the Legion and of the Women's Auxiliary. For needy families hampers will be sent out. The annual Christmas dinner for unemployed ex-service men will be arranged by a committee of W. M. Brown, W. J. Rance, H. A. Breen and J. Preece. The usual Christmas Eve and New Year's eve features will be repeated.

New members of the branch include Victor Benetton, M. J. Keays, Frank Guest, John S. West, James Sharman and J. Prince.

The installation of a central heating plant has been completed and is proving an entire success. A review of the activities of the Women's Auxiliary was given by Jack Preece and their splendid assistance on many occasions has been a strong factor in the success of the branch. The report was received with enthusiasm.

A Christmas Billiard tournament will get under way this coming week and an interesting series of games is assured.

BRAISED CALF'S LIVER

Wipe liver and skewer into shape if necessary. Draw small lardoons—that is, strips of fat pork or bacon—through the liver in parallel rows, leaving each lardoon extended a half inch above the surface. Place liver in a casserole or Dutch oven, surround with remnants of lardoons. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and dredge with flour. Surround with one-third cup each of carrots, onions and celery cut in small cubes. Add one-half teaspoonful pepper-corns, six cloves, one spray parsley, a bit of bay leaf, and two cups of hotbrown stock or water. Cover closely and cook two hours in a slow oven. Remove cover the last half hour of cooking, so that liver may brown richly. Remove liver to serving platter and set aside in a warm place. Strain liquor in casserole and use for making a brown sauce. Pour sauce around liver and serve. Braised liver may be served cold, thinly sliced.

WILL MAKE LONG TRIP

Local Doctor and Son to Travel Around World, Leaving Here Christmas Week

Dr. W. T. Kergin of this city and his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Kergin, will be leaving Prince Rupert aboard the steamer Catala Christmas week for a six months' trip around the world. They will travel to Europe via the Orient and Suez Canal, sailing from Vancouver December 26 aboard the Japanese liner Heian Maru. While Dr. Kergin's trip is primarily for rest and change, he shall visit hospitals in Vienna and England while away.

Dr. W. S. Kergin of Premier had decided to go to Vienna and England for post-graduate work and, therefore, is making the trip with his father.

Mrs. W. T. Kergin will leave a little later to visit friends in the East and will cross from Montreal or New York, meeting Dr. Kergin in London. They will then spend a month or so in England and on the continent returning to Prince Rupert some time the latter part of June.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Kergin will return to Premier later.

Tonight's train, due from the east at 10:20, was reported this morning to be on time.
