Miss Cathie Irvine Bride of Tommy Fraser at Beautiful Ceremony

Before a congregation the size of which taxed the capacity of First United Church, a beautiful marriage ceremony of outstanding interest, uniting one of the city's best known and most popular young couples, took place last evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Catherine May Irvine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Irvine, became the bride of Thomas Fraser, only son of Mrs. Robert McCook. The nuptial rites were performed by Rev. C. D. Clarke in the attractive setting of a large lattice-work floral arch under a large white wedding bell. The church had been specially decorated for the occasion by the friends of the couple.
