

MASSETT ORPHAN DIES
 MASSETT, Feb. 27:—Daniel Adams, an orphan, died suddenly here last week.

If You're Told to "Alkalize"

Try This Remarkable "Phillips" Way Thousands are Adopting

On every side today people are being urged to alkalize their stomach. And thus ease symptoms of "acid indigestion," nausea and stomach upsets.

To gain quick alkalization, just do this: Take two teaspoons of PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA 30 minutes after eating. OR—take two Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, which have the same antacid effect.

Relief comes almost at once—usually in a few minutes. Nausea, "gas"—fullness after eating and "acid indigestion" pains leave. You feel like a new person.

Try this way. You'll be surprised at results. Get either the liquid "Phillips" or the remarkable, new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Delightful to take and easy to carry with you. Only 25¢ a box at all drug stores.

Massett Farmers' Institute Meet

Organization Did Good Work During Year—1937 Executive Elected

MASSETT, Feb. 27:—The annual meeting of the Graham Island Farmers' Institute was held in the New Massett School House last Saturday, a fairly large number being present.

The reports showed that, under the able leadership of Chairman Chas. A. Smith, much work had been accomplished in bringing the needs of the district, especially harbor facilities for fishing boats before the proper authorities and considerable progress has been made.

The following executive was elected for the coming year: Chas. A. Smith, A. Cary, T. Nevin, Max Ward and Mrs. W. Hastie.

Reception Held At Massett For Newlywed Pair

MASSETT, Feb. 27:—The reception being under the auspices of the New Massett Community Club practically everyone in Massett met in Martin's Hall on February 16 to bid Clarence Martin and his bride (formerly Miss Phyllis Kent) a hearty welcome home.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin returned to Massett recently after an extended honeymoon in Southern California.

A very pleasant evening was spent, the party lasting until the early hours of next morning.

During the supper hour Dr. J. C. Dunn, on behalf of the residents of Massett, presented the bride and groom with a handsome pair of silver entree dishes.

Many speeches were made.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Women of Various Denominations United Yesterday

Although the meeting in connection with the World Day of Prayer had to be postponed from the original set date because of sickness, the sunshine on Friday afternoon brought a welcome hint of spring and new life and a goodly number of women turned out at First Presbyterian Church to engage in prayer. Women of various denominations participated in devotion to one Lord.

Mrs. D. C. Stuart presided and ably led the program which had for its theme "The Son of the Living God." The meeting opened in a note of praise with the singing of the Hymn "Hail to the Lord's Anointed." There were prayers in unison, a scripture lesson read responsively, periods of silent prayer and prayer for specific objects.

Mrs. E. J. North of the Pentecostal Assembly prayed that the Christian Church might be made strong and uncompromising and be guided to meet today's changing conditions.

Prayer was offered for missions at home and abroad by Mrs. G. A. Kelsey of St. Peter's Church.

Mrs. J. W. McKinley of the Presbyterian Church led in prayer for the community and for a more widespread interest in the cause of temperance.

Mrs. G. W. Wilkinson of First United Church prayed for the Youth, that they might get a clear vision of God and that their lives might be turned into useful channels.

Prayer was offered for Sovereigns and leaders of Empire and Dominions by Mrs. C. V. Evitt of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral.

Mrs. Dafoe Speaker

There was much inspiration given in the address on the purpose of the Day of Prayer brought by Mrs. F. W. Dafoe of the Baptist Church. Mrs. Dafoe reminded that the main purpose of the day was to deepen the spiritual life of the women themselves by a clearer vision of the Son of God. She dwelt on the words of Christ when He said: "If ye abide in Me and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." Prayer would be answered inasmuch as there was willingness to abide in Christ and allow Him to use people to help answer their prayers.

"We must not be so busy trying to build ladders to surmount obstacles when God has given a key to open a way through. Prayer is not only a privilege and an opportunity but an obligation and should be used or it will be lost," said Mrs. Dafoe, who stressed the point that, if Christ was to abide in people their hearts must be emptied of other things—not necessarily wicked things but things that made people too busy to pray.

Major Eva Laycock and Captain E. Robertson of the Salvation Army rendered a vocal duet entitled "True-hearted, Whole-hearted" after which the meeting was brought to a close.

Mrs. E. J. Smith presided at the organ.

Aged Native Of Massett Passes

Mrs. James Jones Dies as Result Of Accidental Fall

OLD MASSETT, Feb. 27:—Mrs. James Jones, one of the oldest residents of Massett, quietly passed away recently. Her death was caused by an accidental fall from her back door. She leaves her husband, five sons, one daughter, many grand children and many great grand children.

The entire town of Massett paid their last respects at her funeral on Sunday. Rev. A. Abrahams officiated and was assisted by both the Massett Music Band and choir. Complying with deceased's last request, her children sang "Let's Gather at the River" over her grave.

Children's Story Hour

Miscellaneous Program Was Much Enjoyed Today

A miscellaneous program entertained the little children at the weekly story hour this morning. The audience was delighted with the request story "Little Claus and Big Claus" and a Chinese tale, "Magic Dumplings," as told by Mrs. Robert Cameron. Eileen Hansblin pleased with an action story, "Sandy." Winnie Cameron related in her vivacious manner the ever popular "Cinderella" and "Fairy Queen."

Next Saturday the program for children between the ages of nine and 12 will be in charge of Mrs. F. E. Robertson. Mrs. G. P. Tinker and Mrs. S. D. Johnston.

Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, in the course of his special church organization survey work, arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and tomorrow evening will sail on the Cardena for Stewart. Returning here Thursday night on the Prince George, he will stop over again until Friday and return to Vancouver that evening on the Princess Adelaide via Ocean Falls.

DON BROWN IS WINNER

Defeated Neil Cameron in City Billiard Championship Play

In the third game of the city billiards championship sponsored by the Canadian Legion and played last evening in the Legion Club Rooms, Don Brown won from Neil Cameron, present city champion, by 500 to 447.

The game started fairly evenly and Cameron was a few points ahead at the first hundred. He was fifty points ahead later but, when he was 208, Brown was 207. From then on Brown played steadily and gradually drew ahead. His best breaks were a 37 and a 33. The best Cameron could do was 24.

This result adds interest to the series. On Monday Balagno and Tinker meet. Balagno and Brown have also to meet and, having in mind Balagno's capabilities, the result of his match with Brown is by no means a certainty for Don. Should Balagno win from Brown the cup might go to any of the four. And, of course, Tinker has his chance too. Altogether a very interesting situation has arisen and further good crowds are assured at the remaining games.

It's the "Request Number"

Ogden's Fine Cut is the "hit"—That's why it's the "request number" on every roll-your-owner's program. Call for this better tobacco yourself, and enjoy the cool, smooth, satisfying cigarettes you make—they are next best to "tailor-mades".

You'll like the purple easy-opening ribbon on the Ogden's package.

And of course, you should use the best papers, "Chantecler" or "Vogue".
