Mrs. John McMillan of Stewart Passes Away in Prince Rupert General Hospital

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Elsie McMillan, wife of John P. McMillan, Canadian customs officer at Stewart, passed away at 4 o'clock this morning in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The husband himself has been a patient for some time in the hospital.

The late Mrs. McMillan had been ailing since last fall when she went to Vancouver for surgical treatment. Returning north, she failed to show any permanent improvement and last March entered hospital here and had been a patient in the institution since that time.

Born in England about fortyfive years ago, Mrs. McMillan was married in Prince Rupert about twelve years ago. She lived at Arrandale on the Naas River for a time before proceeding with her husband to Stewart. In addition to the widower, deceased leaves to mourn her loss a daughter, Irene, aged eleven, and a son, Angus,

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers with Rev. Dr. J. W. Stevenson, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, officiating.
